ITINERARY - ITINERARY

Day 1 Arrival Day

You're welcome to check in from 16:00. If you are a member you can arrive at the house from 14:00 in 2026. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea at 16:30 and meet other guests.

Before dinner this evening, your ornithologist leader will introduce themselves and the itinerary. They'll also give an introductory talk on the local area's birdlife and what you're likely to see during your holiday.

Day 2 Pulborough Brooks & Amberley Wildbrooks

Though these holidays don't cover great distances on foot, they are still active. You'll be hopping on and off the coach and should expect to spend the majority of the day on your feet. Walking to the birdwatching sites may take you across country tracks or footpaths and, at times, off the beaten track so be sure to bring sturdy shoes.

This morning we'll explore nearby Pulborough Brooks. Managed by the RSPB, this wetland reserve has exciting wildlife watching opportunities year-round. We'll visit the network of bird hides where with luck, we'll spot ducks, geese, waders and other migrant birds which visit Sussex in the autumn & winter, to escape the frozen north.

The afternoon takes us to Amberley Wildbrooks, an extensive network of ditches and marshland which provide a home and an essential refuelling station for migrating birds.

We'll keep our eyes open, hoping to sight owls, harriers, eagles and other birds of prey hunting over the marshes.

Please note entrance fees to Pulborough Brooks RSPB reserve have not been included in the price of the holiday. We know many of you are RSPB members and will be able to access the reserve free – please remember to bring your membership card. Any non-members, please allow approx. £4 per person for entrance fee, payable on arrival to the site.

Day 3 The Burgh & Burton Mill Pond

Sitting high on the rolling South Downs the Burgh is an extensive estate managed for conservation. The cover and crops provide food for flocks of Grey Partridges, finches and buntings and these in turn attract birds of prey in the autumn and winter. We'll be looking out for kites, hawks, harriers, buzzards and falcons.

In the afternoon, we'll move on to explore Burton Mill Pond. A circular walk takes us through a diverse mix of habitats: wet woodland, heathland, ponds and bogs. We'll look for Great Crested Grebes and other waterbirds on the main pond and walk the boardwalk to explore the murky depths of the 'Black Hole'

Day 4 Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

ACCOMMODATION

Abingworth Hall, Thakeham

Country living just got cosier at this former farmhouse. Abingworth Hall is just a skip away from the village of Thakeham at the foot of the South Downs – a landscape of ancient woodland, hidden valleys, chalky cliffs, and high-backed hills so deserving of its national park status finally bestowed in 2010. While the views from the doorstep are as wow-worthy as you'd expect, the walking opportunities around the sightseeing greats such as Devil's Dyke, Seven Sisters Country Park, Kingley Vale, Parham House, and the Clayton Windmills (known locally as Jack and Jill) are equally standout. You'll also be within easy driving distance of several historic towns and cities, most fabulously Arundel, Chichester, and Brighton.

Then & now

Some 800 years of history are encapsulated within Abingworth Hall's walls. Parish records reference Roger of Abingworth in 1231, but this was very much a working farm until the 19th century (the 1861 census citied farmer Edward Upperland as the owner of 'Abingworth Place'). Later converted into a three-storey residence complete with an ornamental lake, it was advertised in 1905 as 'a residential estate with pleasure grounds, agricultural buildings, dwelling house, eight cottages, fertile meadow, arable lands, orchards, and market gardens'. Following a fire, the house was completely rebuilt in 1910 by new owner, Charles Stanley Peach – an architect most famous for designing the Centre Court stadium at Wimbledon in 1921. In 1913, ownership transferred to Sir Oswald Ernald Mosley, grandfather of notorious fascist Oswald Mosley, and later to Captain Frank Elliot Stobart whose wife, Faith, landscaped the gardens that remain today. In 1945, the estate was purchased by mushroom-growers AG Lingfield and the house renamed Abingworth Hall. It has been part of our HF Holidays line-up since 1994.

Nowadays, there's 27 well-appointed guest rooms in two categories (Classic and Premium), a dining room for a range of dishes made with fresh and seasonal ingredients, and three comfortable lounges – the largest of which opens onto an attractive conservatory and a licensed bar. There's also a ballroom, books and games to borrow during your stay, a handy boot and drying room, and a Discovery Point offering a wide range of local area maps, route guides, and easy-to-follow information for self-guided walks. Elsewhere, there's eight acres of lovely gardens and an outdoor heated pool (open from May to September*).

Helping you enjoy the Great Outdoors - A natural focus on walks

Walks talks and Discovery Points
Our founder, country pastor turned social innovator, Thomas Arthur Leonard, was passionate about encouraging people to explore the countryside. His legacy continues in HF's continued focus on walking. Many guests choose to travel with us on guided or self-guided walking holidays, and as such, evenings at our houses are often busy with walk leaders hosting various briefings and talks. On guided walking holiday arrival days, there are walking information briefings before dinner, and for the duration of any guided walking holiday there will be a Walks Talk before (or on occasion after dinner), to go through the following day's walk options. Self-guided walking guests, and those on special interest holidays (where there is free time to explore independently), are of course welcome to also join in these Walks Talks - please talk to the team locally if you have any queries. Our Discovery Points are filled with handy maps and route notes, designed to ensure everyone, not just those booked on a guided walking holiday, can enjoy the beautiful countryside settings that our HF houses enjoy.

The walking day
Prior to setting off on guided walks, our HF Holidays Leaders run through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure walkers have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. These can be found near the Discovery Point in the house.
