ITINERARY - ITINERARY

Day 1 Arrival Day

Check-in at the hotel is available from 16:00. If you are a member you can arrive at the house from 14:00. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea at 16:30 and meet other guests.

Day 2 Dufton and the Eden Valley to Appleby

Option 1 - Dufton and Hilton to Appleby

Distance: 4 miles (6.5km)

Ascent: 150 feet (50m)

We'll begin with a visit to the former mining village of Dufton, an ancient settlement at the foot of the high Pennine hills with a green surrounded by properties to protect against cattle raiders. From Hilton, we begin our walk, descending very gradually to Appleby on the River Eden with just three short sections of ascent. A track alongside Hilton Beck, with a distinctively wilderness feel, brings us to Langton. Flat field tracks take us to the embankment of an old dam (one easy stile) which leads to woodland paths and the outskirts of Appleby. The descent into the town is on minor roads to the riverside before entering the town centre over the ancient stone bridge.

Option 2 - Dufton and Flakebridge Woods to Appleby

Distance: 6 miles (9.5km)

Ascent: 500 feet (150m)

This walk allows time in Dufton before entering the eastern part of Dufton Ghyll where much of the red sandstone for the older houses was quarried. Nature has taken the ghyll back with a wonderful variety of trees, ferns, and wildflowers. Then it is up a short section of the Pennine Way with extensive views across the Eden Valley. We continue round the hillside and a descent through fields (one stile) to the varied woodland of Flakebridge. Flat field tracks lead to the embankment of an old dam (with one easy stile) and on to woodland paths and the outskirts of Appleby. The descent into the town is on minor roads to the riverside before entering the town centre over the ancient stone bridge.

Option 3 - Dufton Ghyll and Keisley to Appleby

Distance: 7.5 miles (12.5km)

Ascent: 650 feet (200m)

We begin by walking to the western edge of Dufton village before entering Dufton Ghyll. A full west-to-east traverse of the ghyll allows us to join the option 2 route up a section of the Pennine Way and round the hillside. We then continue along a very quiet road to cross the High Cupgill Beck and on to High Cup House. Then it is a very gentle descent of tracks and paths through the fields to reach the woodlands. We join the embankment of the old dam (with one easy stile) for the descent into Appleby.

Day 3 The Lune and Rawthey Valleys to Sedbergh

Option 1 - Lincoln's Inn Bridge to Brigflatts and Sedbergh

Distance: 4 miles (6.5km)

Ascent: 250 feet (80m)

Today's walks all start with a short transfer to the Lune Valley. We start the option 1 walk at Lincoln's Inn Bridge and follow farm tracks and field paths via Luneside and Ingmire Hall to Brigflatts Quaker Meeting House. More field paths and a crossing of the former railway line take us eastwards to Birks and alongside the River Rawthey, passing Sedbergh School grounds to Millthrop Bridge. Our walk continues upstream alongside the river to Settlebeck Bridge and back to Thorn's Hall.

Option 2 - The Dales Way, Lune Viaduct and Howgill Lane

Distance: 5.5 miles (9km)

Ascent: 650 feet (200m)

We begin our walk just past Brigflatts, taking a field path to the interesting settlement of High Oaks then on to Luneside and Lincolns Inn Bridge. We continue up the Lune and pass under the Lune viaduct on the Dales Way. The trail gradually rises up to Bramaskew and eventually reaches Howgill Lane, with excellent views and quiet and enjoyable walking. We follow it into Sedbergh town centre and return on foot to Thorn's Hall.

Option 3 - The Lune Valley and Brigflatts

Distance: 7 miles (11.5km)

Ascent: 450 feet (140m)

Descent: 950 feet (300m)

This area is home to Fox's Pulpit, a fantastic view point with a high rock on the unassuming Firbank Fell. At this place of pilgrimage in 1652, fresh from his vision on Pendle Hill, George Fox addressed a multitude, and thus began the Quaker movement, 'The Society of Friends'. We descend a little-used path into the Lune Valley, crossing the river on a foot bridge to join the Dales Way. We pass under the impressive Lune Viaduct and continue to Lincoln's Inn Bridge and Luneside. Then it is field paths to Ingmire Hall and Brigflatts Quaker Meeting House. We take the path alongside the river Rawthey to Settlebeck Bridge and on to finish at Thorn's Hall.

Day 4 Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

Then & now

The earliest reference to Thorns (it was renamed Thorns Hall in 1685) was in 1534 when Alan Sedgwick transferred 'the gudewill and tennendright of my hole Fermold cald Thornys' to Giles Lund of Sedbergh for £30. It was then sold in 1586 to John Mayer, Master of Sedbergh School, and the property remained in the family until 1679. It continued as the residence for subsequent Masters of Sedbergh School until 1802 when it was marketed as a 'handsome roomy mansion...with a large fruitful garden and orchard, a cottage, two water corn mills, drying kiln, malt kiln and granary'. It was purchased by sea captain William Findlay for £4,650 and changed hands a few times thereafter. It has been part of our HF Holidays line-up since 1988 and was visited by King Charles III during our centenary celebrations in 2013.

Although the building has been renovated, many of the original features will appeal to history lovers; think wood-panelled public rooms, beamed ceilings, open fireplaces, and stone flag flooring. There's also a pretty garden, books and games to borrow during your stay, a handy boot and drying room, and a Discovery Point offering a wide range of local area maps, route guides, and easy-to-follow information for self-guided walks. Accommodation comes by way of 25 well-appointed guest rooms in three categories (Classic, Premium, and Superior) spread across the main house, cottages, and cobbled courtyard. You'll also find a dining room for a wide range of dishes made with fresh and seasonal ingredients, a licensed bar for cosying up with a drink by the log burner, and wow-worthy countryside views in every direction.

Check-In & Check-Out

You are welcome to check in from 4pm at the earliest. HF Members can check in earlier, from 2pm. On arrival, you'll enjoy a complimentary cream tea and get to meet your fellow guests, our HF Holidays Leaders, and the rest of the friendly team. Check out 10am.

Our houses are locked at night, so we recommend noting the Duty Manager's number on arrival in case of an emergency (or getting locked out).

Helping you enjoy the Great Outdoors - A natural focus on walks

Walks talks and Discovery Points
Our founder, country pastor turned social innovator, Thomas Arthur Leonard, was passionate about encouraging people to explore the countryside. His legacy continues in HF's continued focus on walking. Many guests choose to travel with us on guided or self-guided walking holidays, and as such, evenings at our houses are often busy with walk leaders hosting various briefings and talks. On guided walking holiday arrival days, there are walking information briefings before dinner, and for the duration of any guided walking holiday there will be a Walks Talk before (or on occasion after dinner), to go through the following day's walk options. Self-guided walking guests, and those on special interest holidays (where there is free time to explore independently), are of course welcome to also join in these Walks Talks - please talk to the team locally if you have any queries. Our Discovery Points are filled with handy maps and route notes, designed to ensure everyone, not just those booked on a guided walking holiday, can enjoy the beautiful countryside settings that our HF houses enjoy.

The walking day
Prior to setting off on guided walks, our HF Holidays Leaders run through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure walkers have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. These can be found near the Discovery Point in the house.
