ITINERARY - ITINERARY

Day 1 Arrival Day

Check-in at the hotel is available from 16:00. If you are a member you can arrive at the house from 14:00. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea at 16:30 and meet other guests.

After dinner this evening, your local ornithologist leader will introduce themselves and the itinerary.

Day 2 Whinlatter Forest & Bassenthwaite Lake

This morning we head to Whinlatter forest hoping to spot their resident red squirrels, as well as birdlife including crossbills, siskin, and other finches in their feeders.

From there we'll head to Bassenthwaite Lake, stopping to look for birds of prey such as buzzard, goshawk, red kite and peregrine and to admire the views over the water towards the Skiddaw range of mountains.

Bassenthwaite Lake gives us the opportunity to see both woodland birds, as well as wildfowl, harriers and grebes, and if we're lucky herds of red deer roaming the shores.

Day 3 The Solway Firth

We head north to the coast today, where the saltmarsh and peat bogs of the Solway Firth provide a rich patchwork of habitats, making this home to thousands of wading birds, ducks and geese. We're on the lookout for teal, wigeon, shoveler, barnacle and greylag geese amongst others - about 30,000 Svalbard barnacle geese visit the Solway estuary each winter.

Our base today is the RSPB Campfield Marsh and while it's the perfect escape from flocks of tourists, we're guaranteed crowds of the feathered variety.

Day 4 St Bees Head

Our final day takes us to another coastal location. Wrap up warm as the famous cliffs at St Bees Head offer fantastic birdwatching but often some biting winds. Scan the waters for red-throated divers, common scoter and goldeneye, and keep an eye on the sky for merlins and sparrowhawks, hunting some of the smaller birds. We'll follow the coast seeing what we can spot, until we reach the village of St Bees on a walk of approx. 2-3miles.

This afternoon, we'll stop at Loweswater, known as a habitat for red squirrels, roe deer and a variety of woodland and water birds. It's also home to a cracking pub that offers a welcoming roaring fire and its serves own home brewed beer, too. The perfect place to raise a glass to the end of our birdwatching adventure together.

Day 5 Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

ACCOMMODATION

Derwent Bank, Keswick

Adored by poets, painters, and literary giants for centuries, the Lake District has always had an irresistible pull. It's no surprise, then, that this country house near the market town of Keswick holds such appeal, not least for its setting in lovely grounds that slope down to the shores of Derwentwater. The location couldn't be more perfect; to the west is Cat Bells, to the east is Keswick, Walla Crag, and Latrigg, and to the south is the entrance to the Borrowdale valley. There's a wealth of big-name attractions within easy travelling distance, including Blencathra, Helvellyn, and Ullswater. Also visit-worthy for walkers is Scafell Pike for its well-trodden routes and trails and the 73-mile-long Cumbria Way for its mist-shrouded peaks, glacial valleys, and many excuses for pit-stops and picnics.

Then & now

Originally known as Finkle Street House, the property was built in 1785 for Joseph Pockington Senhouse, the former High Sheriff of Newark. While it is unknown whether he lived here, he was insistent on drawing up his own architectural plans and arranging buildings in rather unsuitable positions (this led his neighbour, the romantic poet Robert Southey, to mock 'that ugly house opposite'). Later renamed Derwent Bank, it was sold in 1824 to Lady William Gordon and again in 1847 to physician Dr David Ross Leitch, a close friend of American writer Ellis Yarnall who remarked on how the mountains 'seemed to put one in the mood for the poetry'. Derwent Bank had several owners prior to 1925 when it was purchased by Mrs Edmunsen who employed contractors to build the stables, the coach house, and two cottages (now accommodation for our team). It has been part of our HF Holidays line-up since 1937 and much extended over the years.

Nowadays, you'll find 40 well-appointed and stylish guest rooms in three categories (Classic, Premium, and Superior), with some either overlooking the lake or facing Cat Bells and Grizedale Pike. You'll also find a comfortable lounge, a licensed bar, an attractive orangery, and a dining room for a wide range of dishes made with fresh and seasonal ingredients. Elsewhere, the house has a boot and drying room and a Discovery Point offering a wide range of local area maps, route guides, and easy-to-follow information for self-guided walks. There's also books and games to borrow during your stay, an outdoor terrace for summer drinks and snacks, and beautiful formal gardens with a putting green, croquet lawn, and mature trees.

Check-In & Check-Out

You are welcome to check in from 4pm at the earliest. HF Members can check in earlier, from 2pm. On arrival, you'll enjoy a complimentary cream tea and get to meet your fellow guests, our HF Holidays Leaders, and the rest of the friendly team. Check out 10am.

Helping you enjoy the Great Outdoors - A natural focus on walks

Walks talks and Discovery Points
Our founder, country pastor turned social innovator, Thomas Arthur Leonard, was passionate about encouraging people to explore the countryside. His legacy continues in HF's continued focus on walking. Many guests choose to travel with us on guided or self-guided walking holidays, and as such, evenings at our houses are often busy with walk leaders hosting various briefings and talks. On guided walking holiday arrival days, there are walking information briefings before dinner, and for the duration of any guided walking holiday there will be a Walks Talk before (or on occasion after dinner), to go through the following day's walk options. Self-guided walking guests, and those on special interest holidays (where there is free time to explore independently), are of course welcome to also join in these Walks Talks - please talk to the team locally if you have any queries. Our Discovery Points are filled with handy maps and route notes, designed to ensure everyone, not just those booked on a guided walking holiday, can enjoy the beautiful countryside settings that our HF houses enjoy.

The walking day
Prior to setting off on guided walks, our HF Holidays Leaders run through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure walkers have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. These can be found near the Discovery Point in the house.
