ITINERARY – ITINERARY

Day 1 Arrival Day

You're welcome to check in at Holnicote House from 4pm onwards. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea on arrival.

Day 2 Conservation & Regeneration

We start our trip with a visit to Higher Barn Farm, a small farm in the eastern foothills of Exmoor. With the Wild CIC are a community benefit organisation with a passion for protecting nature and own the farm. They have a vision to transform the parcel of land to become a diverse and thriving ecosystem, full of wildlife and wonderful food that they can share with the local community.

After lunch back at the house, we'll have a chance to visit the habitat of Holnicote's recently reintroduced beaver population with a National Trust Volunteer. After a short talk about the beavers, there's free time to explore the village of Selworthy with its famous Periwinkle tearoom and All Saints Church.

Day 3 Poets & Literary Greats

Starting the day with a journey to the Valley of Rocks, we'll visit Poets Corner, a shelter built in the 1920s which has been inscribed with poetry by local people. From here, we'll head to Lynton, enjoying a ride on the funicular railway. It's then on to the Doone valley, the inspiration for R D Blackmores Lorna Doone novel. There's time for a coffee before our visit to Watchet via Ash Farm where Coleridge penned Kubla Khan. Watchet inspired Coleridge to pen the hauntingly beautiful poem, the Rhyme of the Ancient Mariner and you can find a statue of the mariner looking over the Bristol Channel on Watchet Harbour. Afterwards, enjoy free time to explore this lovely fishing village.

Day 4 Free Day

Discover more about Holnicote House and the local area for ideas on how to fill your free day.

Day 5 Coastal Life

Spend a day exploring the coastal beauty and maritime heritage of Porlock. We'll begin at Porlock Marsh, home to a diverse array of birdlife and unique coastal plants. It's then on to Porlock Bay to learn about Exmoor's historic oyster farming industry and the opportunity to sample a freshly shucked Porlock Bay Oysters. In the afternoon, we'll visit either Greencombe Gardens, with its camellias, rhododendrons, and woodland blooms overlooking the bay, or Brendon Gardens, a rural haven of wildflowers, apple and olive trees, and peaceful lakeside views.

Day 6 Wildlife on the Moors

Today we'll take a trip to the Exmoor Pony Centre to learn about the welfare and conservation work underway by the staff here and more about the ponies themselves.

We'll then journey back towards the coast via Withypool Tarr Steps, a typical clapper bridge construction dating from medieval times. In the afternoon, we'll meet with one of the Exmoor National Park Volunteers for a talk on the wildlife and wildflowers on Exmoor.

Day 7 Produce & Steam

Our final day begins at Willow and Wetland Visitor Centre where we can learn about the different aspects of willow growing, processing and basket making.

From here we'll travel to Burrow Hill Cider Farm to learn about the cider making process, before finishing the holiday with a scenic ride on the West Somerset Railway.

Day 8 Departure Day

Departure after breakfast.

Walks talks

Our HF Holidays walk leaders host guided walking information briefings before dinner on guided walking holiday arrival days. This is followed by a group Walks Talk for information on the following day's guided walks (held before dinner every evening). Self-guided walking guests are, of course, welcome.

The walking day

Prior to setting off on guided walks, your HF Holidays Leader will run you through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure you have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day.
