Day 2 Above Loch Leven

Option 1 - Mamore Lodge and Grey Mare's Waterfall

Distance: 6 miles (10km)

Ascent: 1450ft (440m)

The sight of Grey Mare's Tail Waterfall plunging 60m into the valley will stop you in your tracks. Not only that, but there are also far-reaching views over the lochs and peaks of this nature reserve.

We'll then join the Old Military Road along the flanks of Sgurr an Fhuarain, stopping at even more fine viewpoints, before heading back to Kinlochleven.

Option 2 - The Lairigmor

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 2,050ft (620m)

You'll walk from the northern shore of Loch Leven to the village of Kinlochleven. The route will take us up a steep hillside, then follow a path behind Mam na Gualainn to join the famed West Highland Way. You'll complete a section of Scotland's premier long-distance path, including part of General Wade's 18th century military road.

Option 3 - Beinn na Caillich

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 3,200ft (980m)

Warm up for other adventurous peaks later in the week with a climb over undulating mountain ridges to the summit of Mam na Gualainn. From the top, Loch Leven stretches out below you, then we'll carry on climbing to reach the summit of Beinn na Caillich. Afterwards we'll descend to join the West Highland Way to Kinlochleven.

Day 3 The Hills Beyond Ballachulish

Option 1 - Gleann a' Chaolais

Distance: 7.5 miles (12.5km)

Ascent: 1,500 ft (460m)

Leaving Alltshellach, we'll head towards Ballachulish Bridge which crosses over the junction between Loch Leven and Loch Linnhe. We'll have the opportunity to see the lochs from a different angle and get closer to the imposing bulk of Beinn a'Bheithir - the mountain than can be seen across the loch from the house.

We'll visit the old railway station and walk on wide tracks through the forest before returning to Alltshellach.

Option 2 - Sgorr Dhearg from St John's Church

Distance: 9.5 miles (15km)

Ascent: 3,900ft (1180m)

Starting at sea level on the opposite side of Loch Leven from Alltshellach, we'll follow a gently rising track through the forest. The path then narrows and steepens until it emerges from the forest below the dramatic horseshoe ridge of Beinn a' Bheithir.

We'll head towards the col then turn left along a wide ridge up to the summit of Sgorr Dhearg. In the right conditions, you'll see the mountains above Glencoe, Ben Nevis, and several Hebridean Islands.

The same route will take us through the verdant valley of Gleann a' Chalois before we dip into the forest and over the Balachulish Bridge to the house.

Option 3 - Sgorr Dhonuill and Sgorr Dhearg

Distance: 10.5 miles (17km)

Ascent: 4,500 feet (1360m)

Ascend on forestry tracks up to a col on the main Beinn a'Bheithir ridge which is followed westwards to reach the summit of Sgorr Dhonuill (1,001m). We return to the col and ascend Sgorr Dhearg (1024m). These mountains are the twin peaks visible from Alltshellach. At the end of the walk, you can relax in the bar area with a well-earned drink and gaze upward at the peaks you've just conquered"

Day 4 Free Day - Scottish Highlands

A free day for you to explore the local area or to relax at Alltshellach. Our Discovery Points help you make the most out of your free day. There's plenty of maps and a selection of the best local walking routes, as well as weather forecasts and public transport options – plus details about other places to visit. Discover more about Alltshellach and the local area for ideas on how to make the most of your free day.

Day 5 Ardgour - Strontian & Garbh Bheinn

Option 1 - Around Strontian

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 900 feet (280m)

We'll take the Corran Ferry across Loch Linnhe to the Ardgour Peninsula. Then, we'll follow the river from the village of Strontian towards the long-abandoned Fee Donald lead mines, before heading back through the Ariundle Nature Reserve. The nature reserve is a precious fragment of ancient oakwood and a wonderful example of Scotland's rainforest. It is also home to squirrels, pine martens, and wild cats - though you'll need a lot of luck to see these elusive creatures.

Option 2 - Hills above Strontian

Distance: 9.5 miles (15km)

Ascent: 1,900 feet (580m)

Ascend on an ancient coffin-carrying route to Bealach nan Cairn, then follow the ridge eastwards to Meall Iain. Later we descend through theformer workings of the Whitesmith Mine back to the Strontian valley. This walk is a great opportunity to hike amongst the tranquil mountains of the Ardgour Peninsula. On a clear day there are great views north over Loch Shiel, and south over Loch Sunart.

Option 3 - Garbh Bheinn (Ardgour)

Distance: 6.5 miles (10km)

Ascent: 3150 feet (960m)

We begin our walk in Glen Tarbet, walking up through the forest. After emerging onto the hillside, we continue onto a ridge and eventually the summit of Garbh Bheinn where, on clear days, there are excellent views east to Loch Leven and Glen Coe and north-east to Ben Nevis. On our return, we'll descend down the ridge of Sron a'Choire Bhig.

Day 6 Glencoe

Option 1 - Historic Glen Coe

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 1,200ft (360m)

Discover Glen Coe's turbulent history and connections to the Clan MacDonald as we follow woodland paths to the scenic 'Hospital Lochan' before reaching Clachaig Inn. This former climber's hostel is steeped in history - nearby Signal Rock was the gathering point for the MacDonalds of Glen Coe in times of emergency.

Option 2 - Sron Gharbh to Kingshouse

Distance: 8.5 miles (13.5km)

Ascent: 2,900ft (880m)

The picturesque valley of Glen Coe provides the setting for this picture-perfect walk. We'll hike along the ridge of mountains on the north side while finding out about the area's history, including the massacre of the Clan MacDonald in 1692. Then after a steep climb to the summit of Sron Gharbh we'll follow the long undulating ridge to Sron a' Choire Odhair bhig before heading down to Kingshouse.

Option 3 - Bidean nam Bian

Distance: 7.5miles (12km)

Ascent: 4,350ft (1,320m)

Savour the challenge as you ascend the mountains that tower above the three sisters. You'll set off from Glen Coe through Coire nan Lochan to conquer the twin summits of Stob Coire nan Lochan and Bidean nam Bian, the highest peak in Argyll. This incredible massif dominates the skyline of Glencoe and provides a dramatic backdrop for today's guided walk. There's one last summit to complete - Stob-Coire-Sgreamhach – before gathering speed downhill through a peaceful glen. You'll have two Munros under your belt after today.

Day 7 Below Ben Nevis or the Mamores

Option 1 - Gleann Domhanaidh

Distance: 7.5 miles (12km)

Ascent: 1100ft (340m)

From the bottom of the Nevis Range Mountain Gondola, we'll head under the canopy of Leanachan Forest on the northern slope of Ben Nevis, taking trails to reach a viewpoint worth every step. Look up at the cliffs of Ben Nevis and the glen from which the water for Ben Nevis Whisky comes, before descending towards Fort William.

You'll then head off in search of Inverlochy Castle, stopping along the way to find out more at the sites of the 15th and 17th century battles fought right here. We'll finish in Fort William where you're free to roam the shops, cafes, and museum.

Option 2 - Mamores Traverse

Distance: 7.5 miles (12km)

Ascent: 3,350 feet (1,020m)

Cross the Mamores mountains from Glen Nevis to Kinlochleven. With 10 Munros, the rugged Mamore ridge contains some of Scotland's finest mountain walking. You can look out along the narrow 'Devil's Ridge' that connects the peaks of Sgurr an Iubhair and Sgurr a'Mhaim. The highest point of this walk is the summit of Sgurr an Iubhair on the famous Ring of Steall.

Option 3 - Stob Ban

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 4,100 feet (1,240m)

A challenging traverse over the mighty Mamores. We'll ascend steeply on the northern spur to the airy summit of Stob Ban and follow the ridge to the neighbouring summit of Sgurr an Iubhair. Stob Ban, meaning 'White Peak' takes its name from the quartzite rocks on the summit. The terrain is rough underfoot, but there are also great rewards when you reach the top of this notable peak.

Then & now

Designed in the early 1870s by Inverness architect Alexander Ross, Alltshellach was built for Lady Alice Ewing – fourth daughter of the 19th Earl of Morton and the second wife and widow of Alexander Ewing, a former Bishop of Argyll & the Isles. Their daughter, Margaret, married Liberal MP Alexander Crum while their granddaughter, also Margaret, married William Thomson (later known as Lord Kelvin) who was one of the most important physicists of the 19th century for determining the absolute zero on any temperature scale. The house remained in the family thereafter, with notable architectural additions including a private chapel, coach houses, stables, and five cottages built from Kentallen granite to house the groomsman and servants. It has been part of our HF Holidays line-up since 1929 (we purchased the property in 1953) and used as a military hospital during WWII.

Nowadays, Alltshellach has 38 well-appointed guest rooms in three categories (Classic, Premium, and Superior). Room 23 on the second floor is known as the Bishop's Room for its small prayer area, but this was most likely to have been the children's bedroom as the bishop would have slept in one of the larger rooms on the first floor. You'll find three comfortable lounges (the area with the small stained glass window at the end of the entrance hall was probably the private chapel), a dining room for a wide range of dishes made with fresh and seasonal ingredients, and a licensed bar with a superb Scottish whisky selection. Elsewhere, there's a handy boot and drying room, books and games to borrow during your stay, a Discovery Point offering a wide range of local area maps, route guides, and easy-to-follow information for self-guided walks, and beautiful lawns and wooded grounds leading down to Loch Leven. It also has a heated indoor swimming pool that is open all year round*.

Check-In & Check-Out

You are welcome to check in from 4pm at the earliest. HF Members can check in earlier, from 2pm. On arrival, you'll enjoy a complimentary cream tea and get to meet your fellow guests, our HF Holidays Leaders, and the rest of the friendly team. Check out 10am.

Helping you enjoy the Great Outdoors - A natural focus on walks

Walks talks and Discovery Points
Our founder, country pastor turned social innovator, Thomas Arthur Leonard, was passionate about encouraging people to explore the countryside. His legacy continues in HF's continued focus on walking. Many guests choose to travel with us on guided or self-guided walking holidays, and as such, evenings at our houses are often busy with walk leaders hosting various briefings and talks. On guided walking holiday arrival days, there are walking information briefings before dinner, and for the duration of any guided walking holiday there will be a Walks Talk before (or on occasion after dinner), to go through the following day's walk options. Self-guided walking guests, and those on special interest holidays (where there is free time to explore independently), are of course welcome to also join in these Walks Talks - please talk to the team locally if you have any queries. Our Discovery Points are filled with handy maps and route notes, designed to ensure everyone, not just those booked on a guided walking holiday, can enjoy the beautiful countryside settings that our HF houses enjoy.

The walking day
Prior to setting off on guided walks, our HF Holidays Leaders run through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure walkers have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. These can be found near the Discovery Point in the house.

In booking this trip you should be confident in your ability to participate in all activities described in these Trip Notes. If you have any doubt about your suitability you should call HF Holidays and ask to speak to one of the team about this itinerary. The information in these Trip Notes is given in good faith. Where differences exist between the Trip Notes and our current brochure, the Trip Notes supersede the brochure. All holidays can be subject to unexpected changes; so please be prepared to be flexible where necessary. At times, it may not be possible to follow the itinerary as planned due to weather conditions, political, physical or other factors. In these circumstances we will make the best possible alternative arrangements to maintain the integrity of the original itinerary.
