ITINERARY VERSION 1

Day 1 Arrival Day

Check-in at the hotel is available from 16:00. If you are a member you can arrive at the house from 14:00. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea at 16:30 and meet other guests.

Day 2 Above Loch Leven

Option 1 - Mamore Lodge and Grey Mare's Waterfall

Distance: 6 miles (10km)

Ascent: 1450ft (440m)

The sight of Grey Mare's Tail Waterfall plunging 60m into the valley will stop you in your tracks. Not only that, but there are also far-reaching views over the lochs and peaks of this nature reserve.

We'll then join the Old Military Road along the flanks of Sgurr an Fhuarain, stopping at even more fine viewpoints, before heading back to Kinlochleven.

Option 2 - The Lairigmor

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 2,050ft (620m)

You'll walk from the northern shore of Loch Leven to the village of Kinlochleven. The route will take us up a steep hillside, then follow a path behind Mam na Gualainn to join the famed West Highland Way. You'll complete a section of Scotland's premier long-distance path, including part of General Wade's 18th century military road.

Option 3 - Beinn na Caillich

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 3,200ft (980m)

Warm up for other adventurous peaks later in the week with a climb over undulating mountain ridges to the summit of Mam na Gualainn. From the top, Loch Leven stretches out below you, then we'll carry on climbing to reach the summit of Beinn na Caillich. Afterwards we'll descend to join the West Highland Way to Kinlochleven.

Day 3 The Hills Beyond Ballachulish

Option 1 - Gleann a' Chaolais

Distance: 7.5 miles (12.5km)

Ascent: 1,500 ft (460m)

Leaving Alltshellach, we'll head towards Ballachulish Bridge which crosses over the junction between Loch Leven and Loch Linnhe. We'll have the opportunity to see the lochs from a different angle and get closer to the imposing bulk of Beinn a'Bheithir - the mountain than can be seen across the loch from the house.

We'll visit the old railway station and walk on wide tracks through the forest before returning to Alltshellach.

Option 2 – Sgorr Dhearg from St John's Church

Distance: 9.5 miles (15km)

Ascent: 3,900ft (1180m)

Starting at sea level on the opposite side of Loch Leven from Alltshellach, we'll follow a gently rising track through the forest. The path then narrows and steepens until it emerges from the forest below the dramatic horseshoe ridge of Beinn a' Bheithir.

We'll head towards the col then turn left along a wide ridge up to the summit of Sgorr Dhearg. In the right conditions, you'll see the mountains above Glencoe, Ben Nevis, and several Hebridean Islands.

The same route will take us through the verdant valley of Gleann a' Chalois before we dip into the forest and over the Balachulish Bridge to the house.

Option 3 – Sgorr Dhonuill and Sgorr Dhearg

Distance: 10.5 miles (17km)

Ascent: 4,500 feet (1360m)

Ascend on forestry tracks up to a col on the main Beinn a' Bheithir ridge which is followed westwards to reach the summit of Sgorr Dhonuill (1,001m). We return to the col and ascend Sgorr Dhearg (1024m). These mountains are the twin peaks visible from Alltshellach. At the end of the walk, you can relax in the bar area with a well-earned drink and gaze upward at the peaks you've just conquered"

Day 4 Free Day – Scottish Highlands

Discover more about Alltshellach and the local area for ideas on how to make the most of your free day.

Day 5 Ardgour – Strontian & Garbh Bheinn

Option 1 – Around Strontian

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 900 feet (280m)

We'll take the Corran Ferry across Loch Linnhe to the Ardgour Peninsula. Then, we'll follow the river from the village of Strontian towards the long-abandoned Fee Donald lead mines, before heading back through the Ariundle Nature Reserve. The nature reserve is a precious fragment of ancient oakwood and a wonderful example of Scotland's rainforest. It is also home to squirrels, pine martens, and wild cats – though you'll need a lot of luck to see these elusive creatures.

Option 2 – Hills above Strontian

Distance: 9.5 miles (15km)

Ascent: 1,900 feet (580m)

Ascend on an ancient coffin-carrying route to Bealach nan Cairn, then follow the ridge eastwards to Meall Iain. Later we descend through the former workings of the Whitesmith Mine back to the Strontian valley. This walk is a great opportunity to hike amongst the tranquil mountains of the Ardgour Peninsula. On a clear day there are great views north over Loch Shiel, and south over Loch Sunart.

Option 3 - Garbh Bheinn (Ardgour)

Distance: 6.5 miles (10km)

Ascent: 3150 feet (960m)

We begin our walk in Glen Tarbet, walking up through the forest. After emerging onto the hillside, we continue onto a ridge and eventually the summit of Garbh Bheinn where, on clear days, there are excellent views east to Loch Leven and Glen Coe and north-east to Ben Nevis. On our return, we'll descend down the ridge of Sron a'Choire Bhig.

Day 6 Glencoe

Option 1 - Historic Glen Coe

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 1,200ft (360m)

Discover Glen Coe's turbulent history and connections to the Clan MacDonald as we follow woodland paths to the scenic 'Hospital Lochan' before reaching Clachaig Inn. This former climber's hostel is steeped in history - nearby Signal Rock was the gathering point for the MacDonalds of Glen Coe in times of emergency.

Option 2 - Sron Gharbh to Kingshouse

Distance: 8.5 miles (13.5km)

Ascent: 2,900ft (880m)

The picturesque valley of Glen Coe provides the setting for this picture-perfect walk. We'll hike along the ridge of mountains on the north side while finding out about the area's history, including the massacre of the Clan MacDonald in 1692. Then after a steep climb to the summit of Sron Gharbh we'll follow the long undulating ridge to Sron a' Choire Odhair bhig before heading down to Kingshouse.

Option 3 - Bidean nam Bian

Distance: 7.5 miles (12km)

Ascent: 4,350ft (1,320m)

Savour the challenge as you ascend the mountains that tower above the three sisters. You'll set off from Glen Coe through Coire nan Lochan to conquer the twin summits of Stob Coire nan Lochan and Bidean nam Bian, the highest peak in Argyll. This incredible massif dominates the skyline of Glencoe and provides a dramatic backdrop for today's guided walk. There's one last summit to complete - Stob-Coire-Sgreamhach - before gathering speed downhill through a peaceful glen. You'll have two Munros under your belt after today.

Day 7 Below Ben Nevis or the Mamores

Option 1 - Gleann Domhanaidh

Distance: 7.5 miles (12km)

Ascent: 1100ft (340m)

From the bottom of the Nevis Range Mountain Gondola, we'll head under the canopy of Leanachan Forest on the northern slope of Ben Nevis, taking trails to reach a viewpoint worth every step. Look up at the cliffs of Ben Nevis and the glen from which the water for Ben Nevis Whisky comes, before descending towards Fort William.

You'll then head off in search of Inverlochy Castle, stopping along the way to find out more at the sites of the 15th and 17th century battles fought right here. We'll finish in Fort William where you're free to roam the shops, cafes, and museum.

Option 2 - Mamores Traverse

Distance: 7.5 miles (12km)

Ascent: 3,350 feet (1,020m)

Cross the Mamores mountains from Glen Nevis to Kinlochleven. With 10 Munros, the rugged Mamore ridge contains some of Scotland's finest mountain walking. You can look out along the narrow 'Devil's Ridge' that connects the peaks of Sgurr an Iubhair and Sgurr a'Mhaim. The highest point of this walk is the summit of Sgurr an Iubhair on the famous Ring of Steall.

Option 3 - Stob Ban

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 4,100 feet (1,240m)

A challenging traverse over the mighty Mamores. We'll ascend steeply on the northern spur to the airy summit of Stob Ban and follow the ridge to the neighbouring summit of Sgurr an Iubhair. Stob Ban, meaning 'White Peak' takes its name from the quartzite rocks on the summit. The terrain is rough underfoot, but there are also great rewards when you reach the top of this notable peak.

Day 8 Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

Daily Walk Options

Easier Walks

Good paths but walks are a bit longer. Some walks, particularly in mountain areas, may have sections over rough or steeper terrain.

Harder Walks

Good fitness and stamina required. Expect rocky terrain with sustained ascents and descents. Walks may include high summits and ridges.

Accommodation

Alltshellach, Glencoe

For a combination of mountain views, olde-worlde charm, and somewhere comfortable to sleep, this stately Scottish house in North Ballachulish has an enviable setting right on the shores of Loch Leven. The walking opportunities here are as every bit rugged and romantic as you'd expect, especially around Glen Coe, the Mamores, Kinlochleven, Bidean nam Bian, and Ben Nevis – the 1,345-metre-high peak towering above glistening lochans and glacial valleys in the north-west Highlands. You can also spend time in Fort William and ride the Hogwarts-esque Jacobite steam train as it makes its way through beauty spots such as Loch Eil, Glenfinnan, and Arisaig to the fishing port of Mallaig.

Check-In & Check-Out

You are welcome to check in from 4pm at the earliest. HF Members can check in earlier, from 2pm. On arrival, you'll enjoy a complimentary cream tea and get to meet your fellow guests, our HF Holidays Leaders, and the rest of the friendly team. Check out 10am.

Food & drink

Seasonal dining, tailored for you

Our team of skilled chefs design our dinner menus to showcase the best of each season, from warming winter comfort food to vibrant summer dishes, including vegetarian, vegan and high-protein options. We also source fruit and vegetables within a 40-mile radius of each house, open every break with a Chef's Special menu inspired by dishes and flavours of the local area, and are able to adapt dishes to suit special dietary requirements.

Welcome Cream Tea

What better way to start your stay than with a cream tea, served fresh on arrival to make you feel instantly at home. A quintessentially English tradition, our scones are baked in-house and served with preserves and clotted cream, providing the perfect opportunity to meet fellow walkers.

A hearty breakfast to start the day

Start the day with a freshly-prepared cooked breakfast and a wide choice from our continental buffet, including hot drinks, juices and fresh fruit. Our team offer a quick and friendly service, leaving you fuelled and ready for your day's adventures.

Our famous picnic lunch

Our personalised picnic lunches are perfect for a day out walking, ready to enjoy when hunger strikes. Choose from a large selection of fresh sandwiches and salads, freshly baked cakes and snacks, including the ever-popular Freddos chocolate bar! Everything is designed to fit neatly into your rucksack, and all of the packaging we provide is recyclable or compostable.

3-course evening meals

Our à la carte evening menus feature a wide choice of starters, mains, and desserts, made with seasonal ingredients and, wherever possible, herbs and vegetables from our own gardens. Shared around sociable tables, dinners are relaxed occasions, with drinks available to order at the table or from the bar, and a traditional Sunday roast to round off the week.

Rooms

Designed with your comfort in mind, Alltshellach has 38 well-appointed guest rooms available in three categories: Classic, Premium, and Superior.

Classic Rooms are comfortable en-suite guest rooms, ideal for a peaceful night's sleep. Amenities include free Wi-Fi, tea and coffee-making facilities, toiletries (hand wash, shampoo, and shower gel), and a TV.

Premium Rooms are more spacious en-suite guest rooms*. Amenities include free Wi-Fi, tea and coffee-making facilities, toiletries (hand wash, shampoo, body lotion, shower gel), and a 32-inch TV. Extras include bathrobes, slippers.

Superior Rooms are even more spacious en-suite guest rooms offering upgraded views of the surroundings*. Amenities include free Wi-Fi, tea and coffee-making facilities, toiletries (hand wash, shampoo, body lotion, shower gel), and a 32-inch TV. Extras include bathrobes, slippers.

We love: Room 21 for its extra space, corner position, and gorgeous views across Loch Leven. Equally fabulous is Room 23 (known as the Bishop's Room) on the second floor.

The Choose Your Room service is available at our UK country houses, allowing you the option of choosing and confirming a specific room for an extra charge of £30 per room. This is subject to availability. Upgrade supplements apply.

About your stay

A warm welcome

We want you to feel comfortable from the moment you arrive. You'll find a welcome pack in your room with guest registration forms, menus, order forms for dinners and picnic lunches, the Wi-Fi password, and the front door code. Our houses are locked at night, so we recommend noting the Duty Manager's number on arrival in case of an emergency (or getting locked out).

Evening entertainment

While evening entertainment varies from house to house, HF Holidays Inter-House Quiz night held after dinner on Wednesdays is a weekly staple. Your HF Holidays leader may be around for tips on guided and self-guided walking routes as well as visit-worthy local attractions.

Walks talks

Our HF Holidays walk leaders host guided walking information briefings before dinner on guided walking holiday arrival days. This is followed by a group Walks Talk for information on the following day's guided walks (held before dinner every evening). Self-guided walking guests are, of course, welcome.

The walking day

Prior to setting off on guided walks, your HF Holidays Leader will run you through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure you have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. These can be found near the Discovery Point in the house.

Local Area

Whether you're enjoying a guided or self-guided walking holiday, there's always the opportunity to linger for longer. Here's our pick of the very best things to see and do within easy travelling distance of Alltshellach.

Ballachulish

Split into three (North Ballachulish, South Ballachulish and Ballachulish Village), the village was once famous for its slate. Nowadays, one of the best-known attractions is the 9-hole Woodlands Golf Course, formally known as The Dragon's Tooth.

Fort William

Nicknamed the Outdoor Capital of the UK, this West Highland town on the banks of Loch Linnhe is a 25-minute drive away. The town centre has a high street with an excellent selection of shops selling outdoor clothing and walking equipment.

Jacobite Steam Train

Making its way through beauty spots such as Loch Eil, Glenfinnan and Arisaig as it travels to the fishing port of Mallaig, riding this Hogwarts-esque steam train is a must for Harry Potter fans. Trains run daily and early booking is recommended.

Isle of Mull

Reached by car ferry from Oban or Lochaline, this Inner Hebridean island is home to Tobermory – the colourful town featured in children's TV series, Balamory. Don't miss Duart Castle, the ancestral home of Clan Maclean – one of the oldest Highlands families.

Isle of Lismore

After hiring bikes at Port Appin, a 30-minute drive away, it's just a short ferry crossing to this quiet and rural island. Must-dos include making the most of the walking and cycling opportunities, spotting all manner of wildlife, and visiting the Lismore Gaelic Heritage Centre.

Oban

As the unofficial capital of the West Highlands of Scotland and the Gateway to the Hebridean Isles, this harbour town is a 45-minute drive away. The climb to McCaig's Tower rewards with spectacular views across Oban Bay to the Atlantic Islands.

Eilean Donan Castle

Claiming to be the most-photographed Scottish castle, this ancient stronghold worth the 80-mile drive. It opened to the public in 1955 and has since become one of the country's best-loved attractions. Most interesting is the banqueting hall, kitchen, and main keep.

Useful Holiday Information

The UK has a famously unpredictable climate so it's best to be prepared for weather that's sunny one minute and raining the next. To make it easier, here's a list of items you should consider packing.

Essentials

- Suitable footwear such as waterproof walking boots that provide ankle support and good grip
- Waterproof and windproof jacket
- Comfortable clothing (jeans & waterproof capes are not suitable)
- Mid-layer(s) to keep you warm. Fleece makes a good choice
- Waterproof overtrousers
- Gloves and a warm hat
- Rucksack with waterproof liner
- Flask for hot drinks
- Water bottle (at least 1 litre capacity)
- Sunscreen
- UV sunglasses

For holidays operating October through to the end of March, please also bring the following on your walks:

- spare warm clothing
- spare high energy food
- head torch and spare batteries
- please note for the October to March season your waterproof jacket needs to offer a high level of waterproofing and wind resistance, and a hood. Look for a waterproof jacket with sealed/taped seams and a minimum HH (hydrostatic head - this is the rating given on waterproof jackets) of 10,000mm+

Recommended

- Several base layers (long-sleeve or short-sleeve)
- Cushioned walking socks to avoid blisters
- First aid kit, including plasters and midge repellent/net and tick remover tool
- Sit mat
- Waterproof pouch for valuables
- Rubbish bag (remember to always leave no trace)
- Wallet/purse
- Camera
- Walking poles
- Midge net

Trip Information

Walks may be changed for safety reasons and are subject to a maximum and minimum number of guests.

Leaders always consider the safety of the group as a whole, and may need to alter or curtail the walk if the conditions dictate. Your leader may refuse to accept a guest where clothing, equipment or behaviour is unsuitable. In the event of a problem all leaders carry a mobile phone, first aid kit, group shelter, spare maps and a compass.

Please note: If you choose to leave the group your leader is no longer responsible for you.

If you have a particular health condition or disability please put this on your guest registration form. This information will be confidential to your leaders and the house manager, but leaders do need to take account of any issues when planning walks. Please carry a copy of these trip notes with you, or note down the contact phone number for your accommodation (details in the travel section) should you need them in case of emergency.

Tripnote validity

TRIP NOTE VALIDITY These Trip Notes are valid based on the date printed at the bottom of the page. They will occasionally be updated post booking and pre-departure. We will send you the latest trip notes prior to departure through a link in your pre departure documents or we can send you a copy in the post if preferred. In booking this trip you should be confident in your ability to participate in all activities described in these Trip Notes. If you have any doubt about your suitability you should call HF Holidays and ask to speak to one of the team about this itinerary. The information in these Trip Notes is given in good faith. Where differences exist between the Trip Notes and our current brochure, the Trip Notes supersede the brochure. All holidays can be subject to unexpected changes; so please be prepared to be flexible where necessary. At times, it may not be possible to follow the itinerary as planned due to weather conditions, political, physical or other factors. In these circumstances we will make the best possible alternative arrangements to maintain the integrity of the original itinerary.
