Most of this walking will be at attractions but some may be across country tracks or footpaths so be sure to bring sturdy shoes. There will also be stairs to climb in the majority of the venues you visit, though other more accessible options may be available. At some venues, there may also be uneven surfaces, such as cobbles or rocky paths.

Day 2 Dolgellau

For 2027

Today we explore the local area with a guided tour of Dolgellau, before heading to Corris for a journey on an old fashion steam train down the Dulas Valley.

Day 3 Harlech Castle and Mawddach Estuary

Our day begins in fine style with a trip to Harlech Castle. One of a ring of imposing castles built by King Edward I between 1283 and 1289 as a statement of power, Harlech Castle dominates with its dramatic position atop a plinth of rock. We'll delve into its fascinating past as we wander the battlements hearing tales of siege and capture that played a pivotal role in the history of the British monarchy. In the afternoon, there's the option of a short yet scenic walk by the Mawddach Estuary.

Day 4 Free Day

Discover more about Dolserau Hall and the local area for ideas on how to fill your free day.

Day 5 Llangollen

Today we head to Llangollen where our first stop will be Plas Newydd, a small cottage which Lady Eleanor Butler and Miss Sarah Ponsonby transformed into a Gothic fantasy of stained glass and elaborately carved oak. Explore the exhibition which brings their story to life and stroll around the immaculate gardens. We'll then head to Llangollen Wharf where we take a journey on the canal in a horse drawn boat. Sit back and relax as you journey down a section of the Llangollen canal which has been designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Day 6 Machynlleth and Talyllyn Railway

This morning we'll visit Machynlleth, a charming market town located in the heart of the UNESCO Dyfi Biosphere. We'll explore the former capital of Wales and learn more about Owain Glyndŵr and the formation of the Welsh Parliament. We'll then head to Tywyn Wharf for a journey aboard the Talyllyn Railway to Abergynolwyn.

Day 7 Portmeirion and Plas Brondanw

Today we visit the wonderfully quirky village of Portmeirion. Built in the style of an Italian fishing village, its pastel-coloured buildings and coastal position bring a touch of Mediterranean sunshine to North Wales. Think stately mansions, gardens, and exotic plants thriving in a healthy micro-climate. So surreal is this quirky Welsh village that it starred as the otherworldly setting for cult 60s TV show The Prisoner.

Afterwards, we'll tour Plas Brondanw, the Grade I listed gardens and former home of Portmeirion's architect, Sir Clough Williams-Ellis, considered to be one of his finest creations.

Day 8 Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

Accommodation

Dolserau Hall

We're delighted to share that Dolserau Hall has now reopened following a significant investment in this much-loved Welsh HF Country House. With beautifully updated social spaces, refreshed bedrooms, and thoughtful enhancements throughout, it's the perfect moment to rediscover this special spot in southern Eryri (Snowdonia). Read more. Dolserau Hall enjoys arresting countryside views at this Victorian manor house at the southern end of Snowdonia (Eryri) National Park. The location is idyllic; think ancient woods and craggy uplands in all directions (parts of the park served as the inspiration for Middle Earth in JRR Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings). There's no shortage of things to do, either, including following the Mawddach Trail along the edge of the Mawddach Estuary, discovering the compact range of hills known as the Rhinogs, and climbing the rugged foothills of Cader Idris – the highest mountain in southern Snowdonia (Eryri) at 893 metres. You'll also be close to Dolgellau, the small market town best known for its once flourishing woollen industry (ruins of the Pandy fulling mills used to remove fats and grease from the wool cloth can still be seen along the Afon Aran River). With only 21 rooms, it's one of HF Holidays' smaller country houses and 40% of its rooms are reserved for singles, making it easier than ever to have your own space.
