HOLIDAY OVERVIEW

Established in 1980, the Shropshire Way was the work of the local Ramblers Association and was intended to link the Cheshire Sandstone Way with Offa's Dyke Path. As its popularity grew, so did its length, and new loops and links were added until 2016 when an official 182-mile 15-stage main route was established. Starting just south of Shrewsbury and ending in Ludlow, this trip takes in five of the best stages of this much-loved walking trail. Led by an experienced guide, you'll journey through miles of unspoilt countryside and discover the fascinating history of the Welsh Marches through its ruined Norman Castles, medieval towns, and unique geology.

ITINERARY - GUIDED TRAIL

Day 1 Arrival Day

Check-in at the hotel is available from 16:00. If you are a member you can arrive at the house from 14:00. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea at 16:30 and meet other guests.

Day 2 Lyth Hill to Bridges

Distance: 10 miles (16.5km)

Ascent:1,000ft (300m)

Starting at Lyth Hill Country Park, we'll follow the rope walk along the crest of a hill said to be the setting that inspired the works of English Romance novelist, Mary Webb, who was once resident here. Along the way, we can admire panoramic views across the surrounding hills and plains of Shropshire.

We'll follow field paths and green lanes before ascending Wilderley Hill to reach the ancient Portway. Leaving the Portway we descend through the pretty Golden Valley and follow the Darnford Brook to the hamlet of Bridges.

Day 3 Snailbeach to Bishop's Castle

Distance: 11 miles (18km)

Ascent: 1,700 (520m)

Starting at Snailbeach, we'll ascend through the remains of historic lead mines to reach the iconic Stiperstones ridge with its stunning views of Long Mynd to the east and the Cambrian mountains of Wales to the west. The Cambrian Quartzite rocks on the ridge become more evident and rougher underfoot as we head south, passing the 'Devil's Chair' and other craggy outcrops to reach Nipstone Rock.

Our next destination is the brow of Linley Hill after which the terrain becomes gentler as we descend along the famous tree lined avenue known as Linley Beeches. Quiet lanes and field paths then take us to the hamlet of More with its rich history including the remains of a 12th century motte and bailey earthwork. We'll continue onwards to Bishop's Castle, a small quirky town with a fascinating history.

Day 4 Free Day - Shropshire Hills

Discover more about Longmynd House and the local area for ideas on how to make the most of your free day.

Day 5 Bishop's Castle to Clun

Distance: 11 miles (18km)

Ascent: 1,750 ft (540m)

Leaving Bishop's Castle past the quirky 'zipped up' houses, we'll head towards Reilth Top before descending steeply to reach a wooded valley walk to Churchtown. Here, the Shropshire Way joins with Offa's Dyke Path, and we'll follow an undulating route along one of the best-preserved sections of the 8th century earthworks which formed the 149-mile-long Offa's Dyke, to Hergan.

Our next destination is the summit of the Cefns with its panoramic views of the Clun Valley. From here we'll follow the ridgeline as it descends to the beautiful village of Clun, with its packhorse bridge and ruins of a Norman Castle.

Day 6 Clun to Stokesay Castle

Distance:11.5 miles (19km)

Ascent: 1,600ft (480m)

Today's walk takes in remote valleys and two of the region's finest Iron Age Forts. Leaving Clun, the 'Way' ascends to Bury Ditches hill fort, passing through the ramparts before continuing onwards through Walcot Wood with its huge oaks. Eventually we'll descend into the ancient and picturesque village of Hopesay.

From here we'll ascend Hopesay Hill from which we'll get our first glimpse of Craven Arms and the Onny Valley. Following field paths, the 'Way' gently descends towards Craven Arms and Stokesay Castle. Built in the 13th century, it is widely regarded as the best example of a fortified manor house in the country (English Heritage).

Day 7 Craven Arms to Ludlow

Distance: 10.6 miles (17km)

Ascent: 500ft (160m)

From the Shopshire Hills Discovery Centre we'll cross the River Onny and ascend to the small village of Aldon along what is reputed to have been a coffin road. From there, the 'Way' descends into the wooded 'dene' of Aldon Gutter which soon converges with Brandhill Gutter (a Shropshire term for a stream in a deep valley). Through the trees we will catch glimpses of Stokesay Court - best known as the location for the 2007 Oscar winning film 'Atonement'.

We'll continue along quiet lanes and field paths to the village of Bromfield with its old mill on the River Teme. From here we'll approach Ludlow along a private estate road (Oakly Park). As we near the town we are rewarded with impressive views of Ludlow Castle. We enter the historic town of Ludlow, across Dinham Bridge. Once described by English poet and writer Sir John Betjeman, as 'the loveliest town in England', Ludlow, with its striking Norman castle, half-timbered buildings, historic church and cafes, is a wonderful place to end our exploration of The Shropshire Way

Day 8 Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

ACCOMMODATION

Longmynd Hotel

For rural calm in the Shropshire Hills National Landscape, the location of this characterful country house is hard to top. Set in a wooded hillside just a short stroll from the market town of Church Stretton (nicknamed Little Switzerland for its picturesque landscape), you'll be within walking or driving distance of the Stiperstones, Caer Caradoc, Ironbridge Valley of Invention, and the historic towns of Ludlow and Shrewsbury. And then, of course, there's the Long Mynd itself – an area of registered common land that has been cared for by a group of farmers (the self-named commoners) who have grazed sheep and ponies here for generations.

Then & now

Built in 1900, this Church Stretton landmark opened as The Hydropathic Hotel in July 1901 at a cost of £20,000. It was hyped as a glamorous addition to the town, not least for its nine acres of land, dormer windows, fine pitched roof (since replaced), healing waters from the saline spring five miles away, and interior furnishings by Heal's (then known as Heal and Son Limited). Sadly, the venture was not a success. Renamed the Longmynd Hotel, it became the headquarters of St Dunstan's, a charity for blinded ex-service personnel, in the 1940s (now known as Blind Veterans UK). Approximately 700 men and women learnt new manufacturing skills here in the hope of finding employment after WWII. You'll notice a blue plaque commemorating this historic period at the entrance, installed during the charity's centennial year in 2015. Longmynd Hotel has been part of our HF Holidays line-up since 2017.

Nowadays, you'll find 56 well-appointed guest rooms in two categories (Classic and Premium), some of which have balconies overlooking the wooded surrounds. There's also a large dining room for a wide range of dishes made with fresh and seasonal ingredients and a licensed bar – both with beautiful views across the Stretton Valley. Elsewhere, there's several comfortable lounges, a handy boot and drying room, books and games to borrow during your stay, and a Discovery Point offering a wide range of local area maps, route guides, and easy-to-follow information for self-guided walks.

Check-In & Check-Out

You are welcome to check in from 4pm at the earliest. HF Members can check in earlier, from 2pm. On arrival, you'll enjoy a complimentary cream tea and get to meet your fellow guests, our HF Holidays Leaders, and the rest of the friendly team. Check out 10am.

You'll find a welcome pack in your room with guest registration forms, menus, order forms for dinners and picnic lunches, the Wi-Fi password, and the front door code. Our houses are locked at night, so we recommend noting the Duty Manager's number on arrival in case of an emergency (or getting locked out).

Helping you enjoy the Great Outdoors - A natural focus on walks

Walks talks and Discovery Points
Our founder, country pastor turned social innovator, Thomas Arthur Leonard, was passionate about encouraging people to explore the countryside. His legacy continues in HF's continued focus on walking. Many guests choose to travel with us on guided or self-guided walking holidays, and as such, evenings at our houses are often busy with walk leaders hosting various briefings and talks. On guided walking holiday arrival days, there are walking information briefings before dinner, and for the duration of any guided walking holiday there will be a Walks Talk before (or on occasion after dinner), to go through the following day's walk options. Self-guided walking guests, and those on special interest holidays (where there is free time to explore independently), are of course welcome to also join in these Walks Talks - please talk to the team locally if you have any queries. Our Discovery Points are filled with handy maps and route notes, designed to ensure everyone, not just those booked on a guided walking holiday, can enjoy the beautiful countryside settings that our HF houses enjoy.

The walking day
Prior to setting off on guided walks, our HF Holidays Leaders run through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure walkers have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. These can be found near the Discovery Point in the house.
