

7-Night Explore Nature in the Shropshire Hills

Destinations: Shropshire Hills & England
Trip code: CSWWS-7

HOLIDAY OVERVIEW

The Shropshire Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty encompasses a region of limestone escarpments, woodland and heather moorland – each with their own natural wonders. A walk along Wenlock Edge should reward with some real specialist species; spurge laurel and the rare wall brown butterfly. There is also an interesting colony of mining bees. In the woods there may be green woodpecker, nuthatch and marsh tit flitting about in the trees. Out in the open there's the chance to spot soaring red kites, red grouse, wheatear, stonechat, linnets and even a merlin – the UK's smallest bird of prey. In September, the heather on the Long Mynd will be in flower, creating a wonderful carpet of purple.

TRIP SUITABILITY

On our Explore Nature holidays, we spend most of the day outdoors, exploring by mini-coach or on foot, walking up to 6 miles (9.5km) each day, stopping to see the local wildlife or geological formations and features. There will be some ascent and descent along the way. Be sure to come prepared for all weathers!

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival Day

You can check in to your room from 2.30pm onwards (better rooms from 1pm). Please join us for afternoon tea. This is the first occasion when everyone in the country house meets together – an opportunity to meet your leader and fellow guests, and find out more about your holiday.

Day 2: The Stiperstones

The Stiperstones National Nature Reserve is noted for its gaunt quartzite rock formations reminiscent of the Devon tors. The contaminated soils of this former mining area do not re-vegetate readily and this favours the grayling butterfly for which the Bog car park, where we shall start our walk, is the best site in the area. The poor soils of the hill have a limited but interesting flora. We take an easy route through the heather to the tors where red grouse, wheatear, red kite and merlin top the bird list. On a fine day the views are dramatic and we finish our walk with some unusual mining bees. A splendid start to our holiday.

Day 3: Wenlock Edge

After a hearty breakfast, we head out to Wenlock Edge - a fine limestone escarpment facing north-west across Shropshire. The ridge is mainly wooded but for most of our walk from Much Wenlock to Presthope we shall be on the sunny edge of the wood and concentrating on limestone plants, such as spurge laurel, and butterflies – the rare wall brown is the star of these. Woodland birds are quiet in August but a small hide in the wood allows close views of such as marsh tit and nuthatch. The walk up to the wood from the car park provides an opportunity to see limestone grassland flowers like the dramatic woolly thistle.

Day 4: Rectory Wood And The Long Mynd

Armed with our tasty picnic lunches, we first walk through the Rectory Wood overlooking Church Stretton. Many fungi appear around the wonderful ancient trees of this historic wood, and last year we had excellent views of dragonflies around the old town reservoir. We then follow the path up the Townbrook Valley through the resplendent heather moorland to the top of the Long Mynd. On the way we'll find a variety of acid-loving plants, butterflies and dragonflies plus birds such as raven, red kite (now frequent in the area), green woodpecker, stonechat and linnet, all while enjoying yet more spectacular views of the Shropshire countryside.

Day 5: Ludlow – River Teme And Mortimer Forest

The River Teme is one of Britain's cleanest and a fine place to look for both dipper and kingfisher from the vantage point of Ludford Bridge – at least six kingfishers here in 2017! Before we leave the river we see the grove of hornbeam trees famed among birdwatchers for its hawfinches in winter. We then follow the Mortimer

Trail up to Mortimer Forest where in addition to the woodland birds we shall see a wide variety of fungi, some interesting plants and with a little luck silver-washed fritillary butterflies. A large bank of buddleia bushes is a great help!

Day 6: Clunton Coppice And Bury Ditches

Clunton Coppice is a hillside oakwood reserve above the River Clun, an important survivor of the charcoal industry. Woodland birds include marsh tit and stock dove, and the fungi can be dramatic. We then enter an area of open modern forest which proved excellent for butterflies in 2017 – and red kites! In the afternoon we cross the Clun Valley to Bury Ditches, a hill fort surrounded by one of the best butterfly sites in Shropshire; here we were successful in finding the rare wood white in 2017 along with a breath-taking display of other butterflies including wall brown. This is a wonderful way to round off our holiday!

Day 7: Departure Day

Depart after a leisurely breakfast

Important Covid-19 Steps We Have Taken For Guest Safety: Please Read

Following the relaxation in government guidance on 19 July, we are continuing to take extra steps to keep our guests leaders, and staff safe in our HF country houses. We ask all our guests to respect the measures put in place.

The English, Scottish and Welsh governments are not in sync, so measures in our country houses will vary between the nations. With the relaxation of social distancing in England, from 19 July we will be allowing larger groups to dine and relax in the bar together. However, we will still give guests space e.g. we will seat 6 people at a table where pre-pandemic we may have seated 8. We will ensure our public rooms are well ventilated by opening doors and windows wherever possible. If you have any concerns about distancing, please speak to the House Manager. The government recommendation for England is to wear face coverings in crowded areas. You must wear a face covering by law in public areas in hotels in Scotland. This is mandatory in public spaces; however, face coverings will not be required whilst eating and drinking in the restaurant and bar areas or whilst you are outside our houses. In Wales face coverings will remain a legal requirement indoors, with the exception of hospitality premises.

As a temporary measure, we will not be servicing rooms during a stay. Extra tea, coffee, milk, and toiletries will be made available on request for all guests. It is recommended that guests bring their own toiletries for the duration of their stay. We will though be increasing the frequency of cleaning in our public areas providing particular attention to frequently touched items including door handles and handrails.

Menus for the week will be available in your room on arrival. A self-service breakfast will be served from 7.45am – 9am. Picnic lunches will now be pre-ordered the night before from an order form in the room. Evening meals will be table service. A dinner order form will be available in each room for completion. Dinner is served at either 7.15pm or 7.30pm. Please check at the house for details. The bar will be open. We will be offering a table service but guests can also come to the bar to order (depending on local restrictions).

Join our team after dinner on Wednesday evenings for the HF Big Pub Quiz. There will be one other evening of entertainment at the start of the week, which will vary depending on the country house that you are staying at. Our Walk Leaders will also be on hand in the bar or lounge for individual or small group walks talks briefings, which allow guests to talk through the following day's walk options and ask any questions. All of our swimming pools are open, except for Glen Coe, which will not re-open this year. Swimming Pools will be operated in line with maximum capacities.

LOCAL AREA

The attractive small town of Church Stretton is around 10 minutes' walk downhill from Longmynd House. After the arrival of the railway, the town grew in the Victorian and Edwardian eras and became known as 'Little Switzerland' due to the dramatic hills on both sides of the valley. Today the town retains its bygone charm and has a range of facilities including a variety of small shops, banks, cafés, pubs and a supermarket.

During your stay at Longmynd House you may enjoy visiting the following places of interest, either in your free time, during a self-guided walking holiday or on your journey to and from Shropshire:

Ludlow

Easily reached by train, or around 20 minutes' drive away, Ludlow is a particularly attractive market town. The historic centre retains many of its medieval buildings, and is towered over by its well-preserved castle. In recent years the town has developed as something of a gastronomic centre, being home to celebrated Michelin-starred restaurants and many acclaimed local food producers.

Ironbridge Gorge

A little further afield, about 45 minutes' drive from Church Stretton, are the many excellent museums of Ironbridge Gorge. Known as the 'birthplace of the Industrial Revolution' it was here that Abraham Darby perfected the manufacture of cast iron which was later used to build the area's iconic iron bridge across the River Severn. Today there are 10 museums in the gorge including the Museum of Iron, the Coleport China Museum and the excellent Blists Hill Victorian town.

Severn Valley Railway

The Severn Valley Railway is one of Britain's premier steam railways. This lovingly recreated Great Western Railway branch line is now run largely by volunteers and is home to an impressive collection of locomotives. As its name suggests, the line follows the rural valley of the River Severn from Bridgnorth to Kidderminster. The nearest station at Bridgnorth is about 40 minutes' drive from Church Stretton.

Acton Scott Working Farm

Situated just 10 minutes' drive from Church Stretton, the Acton Scott Working Farm Museum is a living museum based around a restored Victorian farm. In recent years this has featured in the BBC2 series Victorian Farm and Escape in Time.

Shrewsbury

Also easily reached by train, or a 30-minute drive, Shrewsbury is the county town of Shropshire. The town centre is particularly attractive, featuring many black and white timber houses dating from the 15th and 16th centuries.

Much Wenlock

The small town of Much Wenlock, about 30 minutes' drive from Church Stretton, is particularly attractive with many black and white timbered houses. Despite its small size, the town can claim to be the birthplace of the modern Olympic Games.

Hereford

The cathedral city of Hereford, is just under an hour's drive away, and can also be reached by direct train from Church Stretton. Hereford Cathedral houses a chained library and the famous Mappa Mundi, a 13th century map of the world.

Attingham Park

Attingham Park is a grand 18th century house surrounded by an extensive deer park, located outside Shrewsbury, around 25 minutes' drive away. Now managed by the National Trust you can visit the ornate rooms and explore the walled garden and grounds.

Powis Castle

This former medieval fortress has been re-modelled over more than 400 years – each generation adding to the magnificent collection of paintings, sculpture, furniture and tapestries. The world-famous garden is overhung with clipped yews, and shelters rare and tender plants. Powis Castle is owned by the National Trust and is located near Welshpool, about 45 minutes' drive from Church Stretton.

Chirk Castle

Just under an hour's drive north of Church Stretton, Chirk Castle is a fine medieval fortress completed in 1310. As well as military displays, the castle was also a domestic home for many centuries, and is surrounded by excellent gardens.
