Day 1 Arrival Day

Check-in at the hotel is available from 16:00. If you are a member you can arrive at the house from 14:00. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea at 16:30 and meet other guests.

Day 2 Filey Brigg To Scarborough

Leaving Filey, we pass the sculpture that marks both the start of our trail & also the start/end of the Wolds Way. Gentle walking along low cliffs eventually brings us to Cayton Bay with its popular surfing beach, the first of several fine beaches we will pass on our trail. An undulating path through woodland & along cliff tops brings us to Scarborough, Britain's first seaside resort. We descend to sea level as we walk along the promenade of South Bay, passing the towering Grand Hotel, once the largest hotel in Europe. From South Bay we climb up onto the headland, with views up to the castle, to visit Anne Bronte's grave. From there we descend to the quieter North Bay to finish our day.

10 miles (16km) with 1,050 feet (320m) of ascent

Day 3 Scarborough To Ravenscar

We leave Scarborough along the promenade of North Bay with its brightly coloured beach huts. At Scalby Mills a short climb up onto the cliffs brings pleasant walking with fine views up and down the coast. We descend into the woodland of Hayburn Wyke with a chance to see the waterfall that falls directly onto the beach. A steep climb out of the Wyke leads to a path that ascends gently all the way to Ravenscar, the Town That Never Was. On the way we pass an old wartime radar station and at Beast Cliff we may be able to spot highland cattle grazing far below us on the undercliff.

10 miles (16km) with 1,400 feet (430m) of ascent

Day 4 Free Day - North York Moors

Discover more about Larpool Hall and the local area for ideas on how to make the most of your free day.

Day 5 Ravenscar To Whitby

From Ravenscar, perched high up on the cliff, we drop down to visit the remains of an old alum production site. From there we make our way to the old fishing & smuggling village of Robin Hood's Bay with its winding passageways. We now climb up onto cliffs that stretch almost unbroken to our eventual destination of Saltburn. For the first few miles our path is shared with Alfred Wainwright's Coast To Coast path, before continuing on the Cleveland Way, with wonderful views along the cliffs. After passing High Whitby lighthouse Whitby Abbey soon comes into view to show us the way into Whitby itself. We descend the 199 Church Stairs before a walk through the cobbled streets past several jet shops.

11.5 miles (18.5km) with 1,400 feet (430m) of ascent

Day 6 Whitby To Port Mulgrave

Leaving Whitby, we pass the Whalebone Arch and the statue commemorating Captain James Cook before a walk along the newly renovated promenade. We walk on to Sandsend before a disused railway line leads us to a steep, stepped climb up to the cliff tops once more. After passing the hamlet of Kettleness, we descend to the mysterious Hob Holes and cross the beach to the picturesque Runswick Bay. A further climb takes us back up again for a final walk to Port Mulgrave, an old ironstone port.

12 miles (19.5km) with 1,200 feet (360m) of ascent

Day 7 Port Mulgrave To Saltburn

Our final day starts with a short walk along the cliff tops to Staithes, another fishing village tucked into a narrow valley to protect it from the fierce North Sea. From sea level we climb up to the highest point on England's east coast, the 666ft (200m) high Boulby Cliff with its panoramic views and abandoned alum works half way down the cliff. We descend once again to sea level to the old ironstone mining village of Skinningrove, before a final climb takes us past the Charm Bracelet sculpture, before a final descent to the elegant Victorian seaside resort of Saltburn-By-The-Sea with its pier, the only one on the Yorkshire coast.

11.5 miles (18.5km) with 1,300 feet (400m) of ascent

Day 8 Departure Day

Local Area

Whether you're enjoying a guided or self-guided walking holiday, there's always the opportunity to linger for longer. Here's our pick of the very best things to see and do within easy travelling distance of Larpool Hall.

Whitby

Just a 1.5 mile downhill walk away, the former fishing town of Whitby is best known for its fish and chips, quaint harbour, and Dracula connections (Irish author Bram Stoker drew his inspiration for his Gothic novel when holidaying here in 1890).

Whitby Abbey

As one of the most atmospheric attractions along the Yorkshire coastline, this looming clifftop landmark was founded by the Saxon King of Northumbria in AD657. It can be reached by climbing the famous 199 steps and it's well worth the effort for the views.

Whitby Harbour West Lighthouse

Of the two lighthouses at the mouth of the River Esk, this taller of the towers was built in 1831. Open to the public during the summer and warmer months only, there's 81 steps leading all the way up to the lantern room. A small entrance fee applies.

Whitby Whalebone Arch

As a nod to Whitby's whaling industry heritage in the 18th and 19th centuries, a huge whale bone arch was erected on West Cliff in 1853. Nowadays, it's an irresistible photo opportunity although this version is not the original and dates from 1963.

Staites

Only a 20-minute drive away, this pretty fishing village was the home of Royal Navy captain and explorer, Captain James Cook. Must-dos include exploring the cobbled streets, spending time at Staites Gallery, and taking a stroll down to the scenic harbour.

North Yorkshire Moors Railway

Running for 24 miles from Pickering to Whitby, this scenic route takes just under two hours. The historic stations are well worth a visit, especially Goathland which was transformed into Hogsmeade Station in Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone.

Scarborough & Stephen Joseph Theatre

As Britain's very first theatre in the round, this iconic performance space was established by stage director Stephen Joseph in 1955 and moved to its current home in 1976. The building has two auditoria: the 404-seater Round and the 165-seater McCarthy.

Rydale Folk Museum

This open-air museum is set in over six acres in Hutton le Hole – a pretty village just under an hour's drive away. There's approximately 40,000 objects on display in over 20 rescued and restored buildings, all of which relate to historic North Yorkshire life.

Castle Howard

Probably best known as the location for the TV series Brideshead Revisited, building on this grand stately home started in 1699 and took 100 years to complete. Highlights include the year-round exhibitions and the sumptuous gardens with ponds and fountains.

York

A 90-minute drive away, this historic walled city is most famous for its York Minster, National Railway Museum, Jorvik Viking Centre, and York Dungeon. Don't miss the Yorkshire Museum & Gardens for some of Europe's finest archaeological and geological finds.
