Holiday Overview

Walking in the North York Moors National Park doesn't get better than the Cleveland Way. This 109-mile-long trail winds its way through the ever-changing scenery of North Yorkshire from the charming market town of Helmsley to the lively seaside resort of Filey. We now offer the trail in two separate itineraries allowing you to take on this challenging trail over a longer period. The coastal itinerary (grade 7) starts in Filey and follows a route along dramatic clifftop paths, sandy bays, and coastal villages ending in the charming village of Saltburn. Meanwhile, our inland itinerary (grade 8) starts in Saltburn and heads into the North York Moors where we walk across wild heather-clad moorlands, tackle steep escarpment climbs and enjoy spectacular panoramic views before finishing in Helmsley. You can choose to walk half of the Cleveland Way in a week or book a two week stay and complete the full trail.

ITINERARY - COASTAL ITINERARY - GRADE 7

Day 1 Arrival Day

Check-in at the hotel is available from 16:00. If you are a member you can arrive at the house from 14:00. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea at 16:30 and meet other guests.

Day 2 Filey Brigg to Scarborough

Distance: 10 miles (16km)

Ascent: 1,050 feet (320m)

Our trail begins at Filey Brigg, where a sculpture marks the start of the Cleveland Way's coastal section and the beginning or end of the Yorkshire Wolds Way. Gentle walking along low cliffs leads to Cayton Bay, the first of several fine beaches along our route. We then follow an undulating path through woodland and over clifftops to Scarborough, Britain's first seaside resort. After strolling along South Bay promenade, we climb onto the headland beneath Scarborough Castle and visit Anne Brontë's grave before descending to North Bay.

Day 3 Scarborough to Ravenscar

Distance: 10 miles (16km)

Ascent: 1,400 feet (430m)

Leaving Scarborough along North Bay promenade, we pass its colourful beach huts before climbing onto the cliffs at Scalby Mills. Enjoy far-reaching coastal views as we continue to the wooded valley of Hayburn Wyke, where a waterfall tumbles directly onto the beach. A steep climb leads to a gently rising path towards Ravenscar, known as 'the town that never was'. Along the way, we pass a former wartime radar station and may spot Highland cattle grazing beneath Beast Cliff.

Day 4 Free Day - North York Moors

Discover more about Larpool Hall and the local area for ideas on how to make the most of your free day.

Day 5 Ravenscar to Whitby

Distance: 11.5 miles (18.5km)

Ascent: 1,400 feet (430m)

From Ravenscar, perched high above the sea, we descend to the remains of a former alum works before continuing to the old fishing and smuggling village of Robin Hood's Bay. After exploring its winding passageways, we climb back onto the cliffs. The first few miles share the route of Alfred Wainwright's Coast to Coast path before we continue along the Cleveland Way. Passing Whitby Lighthouse, we soon catch sight of Whitby Abbey and descend the 199 Steps into the town's characterful cobbled streets.

Day 6 Whitby to Port Mulgrave

Distance: 12 miles (19.5km)

Ascent: 1,200 feet (360m)

Leaving Whitby, we pass the Whalebone Arch and Captain Cook Memorial before following the promenade towards Sandsend. A disused railway line leads to a steep, stepped climb onto the clifftops. Beyond the hamlet of Kettleness, we descend to the mysterious Hob Holes and cross the beach to picturesque Runswick Bay. One final climb returns us to the cliffs for the walk to Port Mulgrave, a former ironstone port.

Day 7 Port Mulgrave to Saltburn-by-the-Sea

Distance: 11.5 miles (18.5km)

Ascent: 1,300 feet (400m)

Our final walk begins along the clifftops to Staithes, a picturesque fishing village tucked into a narrow valley. From sea level, we climb to Boulby Cliff, the highest point on England's east coast at 666 feet (203m), for panoramic views. We then descend to the former ironstone-mining village of Skinningrove before climbing past the striking Charm Bracelet sculpture. A final descent brings us to the elegant Victorian resort of Saltburn-by-the-Sea and the only surviving pleasure pier on the Yorkshire coast for a fitting finale to our journey.

Day 8 Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

This is followed by a group Walks Talk for information on the following day's guided walks (held before dinner every evening). Self-guided walking guests are, of course, welcome.

The walking day

Prior to setting off on guided walks, your HF Holidays Leader will run you through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure you have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. Local Area

Whether you're enjoying a guided or self-guided walking holiday, there's always the opportunity to linger for longer. Here's our pick of the very best things to see and do within easy travelling distance of Larpool Hall.

Whitby

Just a 1.5 mile downhill walk away, the former fishing town of Whitby is best known for its fish and chips, quaint harbour, and Dracula connections (Irish author Bram Stoker drew his inspiration for his Gothic novel when holidaying here in 1890).

Whitby Abbey

As one of the most atmospheric attractions along the Yorkshire coastline, this looming clifftop landmark was founded by the Saxon King of Northumbria in AD657. It can be reached by climbing the famous 199 steps and it's well worth the effort for the views.

Whitby Harbour West Lighthouse

Of the two lighthouses at the mouth of the River Esk, this taller of the towers was built in 1831. Open to the public during the summer and warmer months only, there's 81 steps leading all the way up to the lantern room. A small entrance fee applies.

Whitby Whalebone Arch

As a nod to Whitby's whaling industry heritage in the 18th and 19th centuries, a huge whale bone arch was erected on West Cliff in 1853. Nowadays, it's an irresistible photo opportunity although this version is not the original and dates from 1963.

Staites

Only a 20-minute drive away, this pretty fishing village was the home of Royal Navy captain and explorer, Captain James Cook. Must-dos include exploring the cobbled streets, spending time at Staites Gallery, and taking a stroll down to the scenic harbour.

North Yorkshire Moors Railway

Running for 24 miles from Pickering to Whitby, this scenic route takes just under two hours. The historic stations are well worth a visit, especially Goathland which was transformed into Hogsmeade Station in Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone.

Scarborough & Stephen Joseph Theatre

As Britain's very first theatre in the round, this iconic performance space was established by stage director Stephen Joseph in 1955 and moved to its current home in 1976. The building has two auditoria: the 404-seater Round and the 165-seater McCarthy.

Rydale Folk Museum

This open-air museum is set in over six acres in Hutton le Hole – a pretty village just under an hour's drive away. There's approximately 40,000 objects on display in over 20 rescued and restored buildings, all of which relate to historic North Yorkshire life.

Castle Howard

Probably best known as the location for the TV series Brideshead Revisited, building on this grand stately home started in 1699 and took 100 years to complete. Highlights include the year-round exhibitions and the sumptuous gardens with ponds and fountains.

York

A 90-minute drive away, this historic walled city is most famous for its York Minster, National Railway Museum, Jorvik Viking Centre, and York Dungeon. Don't miss the Yorkshire Museum & Gardens for some of Europe's finest archaeological and geological finds.
