ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival Day

Welcome to Hotel Vila Gale Tavira. Unpack and settle in.

Day 2: Estoi Palace And Roman Ruins

The day starts with a visit to the ruins of a once luxurious Roman villa at Milreu. One of the most important remains at the Roman presence in the Algarve, and now classified as a national monument. After spending some time at the museum, we walk through the old town of Estoi before walking in the foothills at the Serra do Caldeirão. We also visit the Rococo Palácio of Estói. The French inspired palace and gardens was built at the end of the 19th Century for a local aristocrat of the Carvalhal family. Bought by Faro City Council in 1987. It is now a Pousada - state owned hotel.

Option 1 - Estói And Milreu

Distance: 6½ miles (10½km)

Total ascent: 850 feet (260m)

In summary: Initially we walk through almond orchards and an old plant nursery before walking to an old quarry. We then head over the saddle and down to the Rio Seco, which we follow back to Estói.

Highlight: The ruins at Milreu are considered the most important Roman presence in the Algarve.

Option 2 - Milreu And Cerro Do Malhão

Distance: 8½ miles (13½km)

Total ascent: 1,200 feet (360m)

In summary: After spending time exploring the ruins at Milreu we head for the summit of Guilhim, which affords us spectacular panoramic views. We descend on quiet tracks and minor roads to Estói, where we'll have time to explore the town, the Palácio and its gardens.

Highlight: The Palácio de Estói is a rococo masterpiece, with gardens to match.

Day 3: Mata Nacional De Conceicao (Tavira National Forest)

Today we walk in the Mata Nacional de Conceição (Tavira National Forest).

Option 1 - Around The National Forest

Distance: 6½ miles (10½km)

Total ascent: 500 feet (150m)

In summary: Our walk today threads in and out of the Mata Nacional de Conceição - the Tavira National Forest. We'll walk on good tracks, through lush woodland and farmland.

Highlight: The walk finishes at the Quinta da Colina estate where we'll be greeted by some welcome local refreshments.

Option 2 - The Forest And Beyond

Distance: 9½ miles (15km)

Total ascent: 700 feet (210m)

Highlight: Watch out for the stands of cork trees; cork from the Algarve is considered the finest in the world!

Day 4: Free Day

Each week there is a free day when no guided walks are offered. This is an ideal opportunity to relax around the hotel, walk independently or visit local places of interest. Some options for your free day may include:

Day trip to Faro and the Ria Formosa: Explore the old city of Faro, the district capital of the Algarve and visit the cathedral, Gothic and Baroque in style. In the afternoon, depart from the Porto Nova; this gate is also known as Portas do Mar (Doors of the Sea) because it's one of the sites where you can depart on a boat trip to the islands of the Ria Formosa Nature Park. You'll be dazzled by this wonderful landscape with numerous small islands, marshes and barrier islands that separate this coastal lagoon from the sea.

Tavira: Spend the day in and around Tavira and/or go to the beach. The beach in Tavira is a 'sandspit' beach, separated from the mainland by the sea and has to be reached by a ferry boat or water taxi. The ferry runs seasonally from Quatro Águas about 1.5km out of Tavira - follow the signs for Ilha de Tavira. An alternative is to use the little tourist "train" which runs every hour. The circular trip lasts for approximately 40 minutes, taking you into the old town of Tavira and out along roads bordering the salt marshes.

Local information website: For information on Tavira please visit www.visitalgarve.pt

Day 5: Along The Coast To Tavira

Our introductory walks explore the area around Tavira.

Option 1 - Pedras El-Rei To Tavira

Distance: 6½ miles (10½km)

Total ascent: minimal

In summary: Our walk starts from the resort village of Pedras El-Rei, crosses the lagoon and heads along the vast expanse of Barril Beach. We then take a water taxi back to Santa Luzia, before turning inland to return to the hotel.

Highlight: The display of anchors on Barril Beach is a spectacular reminder of the tuna fishing industry that once dominated the area.

Option 2 - Livramento To Tavira

Distance: 10 miles (16km)

Total ascent: minimal

In summary: This walk starts a little further along the coast at a village called Livramento. The early parts of the walk explore the lagoons and salt pans of the Ria Formosa before reaching Pedras El-Rei and tracing the route of the easier party.

Highlight: The Ria Formosa is a nature park that forms an important habitat for aquatic birds - this walk provides great opportunities for birdwatchers.

Day 6: Vila Real De Santo Antonio And The Coast

Today we have the services of a local interest guide who will join us on the coach from the hotel. Initially, we visit the whitewashed village where time has stood still at Caceia Velha. It has cliff top views over the Ria Formosa and the modern resorts to the east. Both groups finish in city of Vila Real de Santo Antonio on the Gardiana River, which forms the border with Spain. Built in 1773 by the Marquês de Pombal, it was based on the urban criteria used for the re-construction of Lisbon following the 1755 earthquake and was built on the site of a small fishing village and largely completed within 5 months. We will see remnants of the sardine and tuna fishing industry, which was once its main economic activity, before embarking on a short tour of the city.

Option 1 - Sertão

Distance: 6½ miles (10½km)

Total ascent: minimal

In summary: We walk along the coast from Altura to the small fishing village of Sertão, before entering the Mata Nacional das Dunas Litorais before ending the day in Vila Real de Santo António.

Option 2 - Vila Nova De Cacelato

Distance: 10 miles (16km)

Total ascent: minimal

In summary: After a tour of Cacela Velha we walk a stretch of the Eco Via long distance cycle route through quiet hamlets and farmland. We're joined in the afternoon by the local guide as we follow the footsteps of the other party to Vila Real de Santo António.

Highlight: The fascinating history of Vila Real de Santo António brought to life by our local guide.

Option 1 - Towards The Guadiana River

Distance: 5 miles (8km)

Total ascent: 500 feet (150m)

In summary: Starting from the hamlet of Balurco Baixo we walk on well-defined tracks towards the Guadiana River and the border with Spain. We follow the river from above, returning to our start point through vineyards and orchards.

Highlight: This stretch of the river is a protected habitat, and there should be plenty of opportunities to spot wildlife.

Option 2 - Ladeiras Do Pontal

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Total ascent: 900 feet (270m)

In summary: This walk starts from Balurco Baixo too, descending to the banks of the Guadiana river. After following the course for a short distance, we then ascend to Miradouro do Pontal for stunning views of the river, before linking with the route of the other party to return to the starting point.
