Distance: 3 miles (4.5km)

Ascent: 350ft (100m)

We'll follow the Shepherd's Trail through the fields and along an ancient trackway to Carisbrooke Castle. If you'd like to visit the castle (payable locally), please check out the English Heritage website as they often run special events in the summer, some of which you will need to prebook. We haven't included the cost of entrance as we know many of you are English Heritage members already and will benefit from free or reduced-price entry.

What your kids will love: The fairytale-feel of exploring mighty Carisbrooke Castle. Have fun dressing up as Norman soldiers, walk the battlements to discover how cannons are fired, and relive an age of knights, broadswords, and battles.

Option 2 - To Carisbrooke Castle

Distance: 6 miles (9.5km)

Ascent: 700ft (220m)

This option is slightly longer and sees us cross the island's central hills from the picturesque village of Shorwell to the impressive medieval castle at Carisbrooke. If you'd like to visit the castle it is payable locally (see above).

What your kids will love: Meeting Carisbrooke Castle's resident family of donkeys. A supply of fresh water was essential for a well defended stronghold and for hundreds of years these friendly animals were used to turn the treadmill and raise water from the well. Fun fact, all the donkey's names begin with the letter J. See if you can guess them all.

Option 3 - Brighstone to Carisbrooke

Distance: 7½ miles (11.5km)

Ascent: 1100 feet (340m)

Starting from Brighstone we'll pass through Shorwell before crossing open countryside until we arrive at Carisbrooke Castle (payable locally).

What your kids will love: Spotting the small ships carved into the chalk blocks on the walls of Brighstone – these were once used as secret codes and signals for smugglers delivering contraband to the island. There's time to explore the Carisbrooke Castle, too.

Option 4 - Three Trails Challenge

Distance: 12½ miles (20.5km)

Ascent: 1,600ft (480m)

Challenge yourself to this fantastic walk along the spine of the island from Carisbrooke Castle to Freshwater Bay. We'll cross the hills to Shorwell then pick up the Tennyson Trail which runs along the top of the chalk downs.

What your kids will love: The bragging rights of being tough enough to take on the challenge. Although this is our longest walking option of the day, there'll be plenty of fun, excitement, and adventure along the way.

Day 3 Tennyson Down & the Needles

Option 1 - The Needles

Distance: 3½ miles (6km)

Ascent: 550 feet (180m)

Stroll along the coast path to Tennyson Down and the Needles. We'll return on the open-top bus and be back to enjoy plenty of time to play in the pool at Freshwater Bay House.

What your kids will love: Riding the world-famous Needles chair lift (payable locally). Test your bravery with a chair lift trip from the top of Alum Bay cliffs down to the beach below. There'll also be time to paddle in the sea and make a game out of how many colours you can spot in the multi-coloured cliff face. Check out videos of the chairlift on YouTube.

Option 2 - Tennyson Down

Distance: 7 miles (11km)

Ascent: 1,200ft (360m)

A fabulous walk over the chalk cliffs of Tennyson Down to the Needles and Alum Bay; one of England's finest coastal walks.

What your kids will love: Discovering what was once a secret rocket testing range and finding out about the Isle of Wight's role in the space race. Don't forget the code word: Project Black Knight.

Option 3 - Headon Warren

Distance: 8½ miles (13.5km)

Ascent: 1,300ft (400m)

Head to the coast at Totland Bay then soak up glorious sea views as you round the Needles headland and return over Tennyson Down.

What your kids will love: Imagining what it was like to be one of the island's ancient tribal chieftains with a visit to the ruins of a bronze age burial mound.

Option 4 - West Wight Circuit

Distance: 12 miles (19km)

Ascent: 1,550ft (480m)

Our longest walking option is a circuit of the western tip of the island. We'll follow the Yar Valley to Yarmouth, then take the coastal path to Alum Bay, before a glorious finale over Tennyson Down.

What your kids will love: Stopping at the Needles viewing platform – the perfect spot for selfies.

If you have any doubt about your suitability you should call HF Holidays and ask to speak to one of the team about this itinerary. The information in these Trip Notes is given in good faith. Where differences exist between the Trip Notes and our current brochure, the Trip Notes supersede the brochure. All holidays can be subject to unexpected changes; so please be prepared to be flexible where necessary. At times, it may not be possible to follow the itinerary as planned due to weather conditions, political, physical or other factors. In these circumstances we will make the best possible alternative arrangements to maintain the integrity of the original itinerary.
