ITINERARY

---

Day 1: Arrival Day

You're welcome to check-in to your room from 2:30 p.m. onwards (upgraded rooms from 1 p.m.) Please join us for afternoon tea.

Day 2: Around Alnwick

Alnwick lies in the heart of some beautiful countryside, none more so than the historic Capability Brown designed parkland that surrounds the castle. Good paths and tracks provide interesting as well as scenic routes into the medieval market town of Alnwick, with its many cobbled streets, narrow alleys and fine stone buildings.

Day 3: Bamburgh Coast

Another set of superb coastal walks today with views of Dunstanburgh and the Farne Islands. The easier walk heads east from the edge of Budle Bay and continues along the beach past Bamburgh and its beautiful Norman castle and on to Seahouses. The Medium walk starts from Beadnell while the harder walk leaves Low Newton and both head north along the same coastal paths and beaches to reach Bamburgh.

Day 4: Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

ACCOMMODATION

---

Nether Grange

Sitting pretty in the centre of the quiet harbour village of Alnmouth, Nether Grange stands in an area rich in natural beauty and historic gravitas. There are moving views of the dramatic North Sea coastline from the house too. This one-time 18th century granary was first converted into a large family home for the High Sheriff of Northumberland in the 19th century and then reimagined as a characterful hikers' hotel. Many of the 36 bedrooms look out across the sea, while a large lounge, conservatory and adjoining bar are there to entertain you. Easily accessible from the house are the coast path while inland lies the Northumberland National Park. North are the Farne Islands and their spectacular seabird colonies and close by is Lindisfarne and its romantic castle accessible at low-tide via an ancient pilgrim's path. Nearby too is the medieval market town of Alnwick and its eponymous castle, as well as the atmospheric ruins of Dunstanburgh Castle, perched on a grassy peninsula to the south of Embelton Bay. Best of all though is Bamburgh Castle, built to resemble a magnificent medieval fortress but actually an impressive Victorian folly.

---
