Option 2 - Nevis Gorge

Distance: 8 miles (12.5km)

We'll meander through Nevis Gorge keeping an eye on Ben Nevis high above us. Enjoy the tranquillity of this wooded gorge, where the torrent churns between giant boulders, providing a soundtrack of trickling water. Option 3 - Below The North Face

Distance: 9 miles (14km)

Ascent: 2,600ft (800m)

Set your sights on the climbers' hut that sits below the mighty north face of Ben Nevis as you begin climbing up and up. Then once we reach it, we'll contour below the Castle Ridge buttress and descend via the Pony Track to Glen Nevis. You'll have the chance to see the famed towering cliffs of the north face up close – revered for its excellent rock and ice climbing.

Day 3: Loch Linnhe And The Hills Around Ballachulish

Option 1 - Loch Linnhe Shore

Distance: 5 miles (8 km)

Ascent: 155ft (40m)

We'll explore the shores of beautiful Loch Linnhe with an easy circular route from the house today. Look out over its calm, crystalline water and the forested hills that embrace it while stretching your legs around the loch. There's also plenty of time to pause and take photographs or take a seat and soak up our surroundings.

Option 2 - Gleann A' Chaolais

Distance: 7.5 miles (12.5km)

Ascent: 1,500 ft (460m)

Leaving Alltshellach, we'll head towards Ballachulish Bridge which crosses over the junction between Loch Leven and Loch Linnhe. We'll have the opportunity to see the lochs from a different angle and get closer to the imposing bulk of Beinn a'Bheithir - the mountain than can be seen across the loch from the house.

We'll visit the old railway station and walk on wide tracks through the forest before returning to Alltshellach.

Option 3 - Sgorr Dhearg

Distance: 9.5 miles (15.5km)

Ascent: 3,700ft (1120m)

We'll cross Ballachulish Bridge to see Loch Linnhe and Loch Leven from high above before setting our sights on the tracks that'll lead us through the forest. There's a gentle ascent followed by a narrower, steeper path that sees you emerge from the forest below the dramatic horseshoe ridge of Beinn a' Bheithir.

We'll turn left after the col to then tackle the summit of Beinn Dhearg. From the top, cast your eyes over the mountains above Glencoe, Ben Nevis, and several Hebridean Islands – fingers crossed for a clear day. The same route will take us back down into the valley of Gleann a' Chalois via forested tracks.

Day 4: Hills And Tracks Around Kinlochleven

Option 1 - Mamore Lodge And Grey Mare's Waterfall

Distance: 6 miles (10km)

Ascent: 1450ft (440m)

The sight of Grey Mare's Tail Waterfall plunging 60m into the valley will stop you in your tracks. Not only that, but there are also far-reaching views over the lochs and peaks of this nature reserve.

We'll then join the Old Military Road along the flanks of Sgurr an Fhuarain, stopping at even more fine viewpoints, before heading back to Kinlochleven.

Option 2 - The Lairigmor

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 2,050ft (620m)

You'll walk from the northern shore of Loch Leven to the village of Kinlochleven. The route will take us up a steep hillside, then follow a path behind Mam na Gualainn to join the famed West Highland Way. You'll complete a section of Scotland's premier long-distance path, including part of General Wade's 18th century military road.

Option 3 - Beinn Na Caillich

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Ascent: 3,200ft (980m)

Discover more about Alltshellach and the local area for ideas on how to make the most of your free day.

Day 6: Glencoe

Option 1 - Glen Coe

Distance: 7 miles (11.5km)

Ascent: 1,050ft (320m)

Discover Glen Coe's turbulent history and connections to the Clan MacDonald as we follow woodland paths to the scenic 'Hospital Lochan' before reaching Clachaig Inn. This former climber's hostel is steeped in history - nearby Signal Rock was the gathering point for the MacDonalds of Glen Coe in times of emergency.

Option 2 - The Lost Valley

Distance: 3.8 miles (6km)

Ascent: 1150 feet (350m)

You'll need to watch your step as we tackle a steep and rocky path along the Allt Coire Gabhail, also known as the Lost Valley. It's rumoured the Clan MacDonald kept stolen cattle here, perfectly hidden in amongst the towering peaks that conceal a waterfall, boulder-strewn paths, and wooded hillsides. It's a tough walk, but you'll feel as if you're exploring another world.

Option 3 - Pap Of Glencoe

Distance: 7.5 miles (12.5km)

Ascent: 2,800ft (860m)

Leaving Glencoe, we'll head under the cover of forest and walk along winding paths and tracks to a small lochan. It's then a steep climb through the forest onto the open, windswept mountainside.

Keep going along more steep and rocky ground, then your effort will be rewarded once we reach the summit - Loch Leven and the surrounding mountains offer a picture-postcard view. We'll then descend following the Allt a' Mhuilinn back towards the valley.

Day 7: Hills And Glens Beyond Ballachulish

Option 1 - Kentallen Peninsula

Distance: 7.5 miles (11.5km)

Ascent: 600ft (180m)

A bracing coastal walk around the Kentallen Peninsula provides a wonderful contrast to the inland mountains. You'll explore Cuil Bay and Kentallen Bay to finish at the Holly Tree Hotel. You'll have ample opportunity to spot birds and seals as we take in the sweeping views across Loch Linnhe and the isle of Mull from the Rubha Mor headland.

Option 2 - Glen Duror

Distance: 9 miles (14.5km)

Ascent: 1,450 feet (460m)

From the ancient settlement of Duror we walk through Glens Duror and Fhiodh in the heart of the mountains. It's a route steeped in Scottish history that passes the birthplace of 'James of the Glens' - the ill-fated leader of Clan Stewart of Appin.

Option 3 - Meall Mor

Distance: 7 miles (11.5km)

Ascent: 2500ft (760m)

We gain height following wooded tracks and paths until we break free of the trees and start ascending one of the ridges that drops from the summit. After taking in the summit's fantastic views of the surrounding mountains, we descend towards Ballachulish via the smaller summit of Am Meall.

Day 8: Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

A warm welcome

We want you to feel comfortable from the moment you arrive. You'll find a welcome pack in your room with guest registration forms, menus, order forms for dinners and picnic lunches, the Wi-Fi password, and the front door code. Our houses are locked at night, so we recommend noting the Duty Manager's number on arrival in case of an emergency (or getting locked out).

Evening entertainment

While evening entertainment varies from house to house, HF Holidays Inter-House Quiz night held after dinner on Wednesdays is a weekly staple. Your HF Holidays leader may be around for tips on guided and self-guided waking routes as well as visit-worthy local attractions.

Walks talks

Our HF Holidays walk leaders host guided walking information briefings before dinner on guided walking holiday arrival days. This is followed by a group Walks Talk for information on the following day's guided walks (held before dinner every evening). Self-guided walking guests are, of course, welcome.

The walking day

Prior to setting off on guided walks, your HF Holidays Leader will run you through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure you have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. These can be found near the Discovery Point in the house.
