ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival Day

You're welcome to check-in to your room from 2:30 p.m. onwards (upgraded rooms from 1 p.m.) Please join us for afternoon tea.

Day 2: Dentdale

Today's walks start in Dentdale. The easier walk starts just outside the village of Dent, home to a 15th century church and onetime centre of a major knitting industry personified by the 'terrible knitters of Dent'. It then follows the Dales Way along the river Dee back to Thorns Hall. The medium walk follows the same route but starts a little further up the valley. The harder walk loops south up Flinter Gill Nature Trail and along Green Lane with extensive views before descending back to the valley and following the same route as the other two walks back to the house.

Day 3: The Howgill Fells & Lune Valley

We can build up an appetite for our dinner with walks starting and finishing at Thorns Hall. The easier walk follows the delightful River Rawthey, in part, along the Dales Way, before returning via the Quaker Meeting House at Brigflatts. The medium walk contours the slopes of local fell Winder with great views over the town, then joins the Dales Way and returns to Sedbergh from the south along the banks of the Rawthey. The harder walk climbs to the top of Arant Haw revealing far reaching views across the Dales, before following a similar route back to the house.

Day 4: Above And Along The River Lune

We all finish in the ancient market and social centre of Kirkby Lonsdale, with river and moorland views commended by Ruskin and Turner. The medium walk starts at Blindbeck Bridge, high up on Barbon Beck, and descends through woodland to Barbon village where the easier walk starts. Both walks then follow the same route south through the Lune Valley via Casterton to Kirkby Lonsdale. The harder walk also starts from Barbon, but heads the opposite way up Barbondale, then south over Hoggs Hill and Casterton Fell, before dropping to High Casterton and Kirkby Lonsdale.

Day 5: Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

Take up residence in the lounge below the exposed wood beams or seek refuge in the small, dark wood-panelled bar with its oversized fireplace and log burner for an atmospheric corner to kick back in and catch up with fellow guests over a local ale or two.

Food & Drink

As at all our country houses, holidays are full board, from afternoon tea served as a welcome treat through that evening's meal to a hearty breakfast on the day of departure. Lunch is a chance to stock up on our famous picnic snacks. Food at Thorns Hall is varied and tasty and has a strong emphasis on ingredients from the area and seasonal produce. Once a week the dining room in the converted barn hosts a Local Food Night, when, over a sociable evening, you might try a five-course feast of regional flavours, from twice baked Wensleydale Cheese Souffle to Lancashire black pudding and Cumbrian rump of lamb.
