

Backroads of the Pelion Peninsula

Tour Style: European Centre Based
Destinations: Greece & Mediterranean
Trip code: POLCL
2 & 3

HOLIDAY OVERVIEW

---

The ancient stone paths of the Pelion Peninsula – the land of centaurs - provide a fantastic network of walking between its traditional stone-built villages. This relatively unknown corner of mainland Greece is the perfect place to get away from it all and sample a more relaxed way of life. Our walks enjoy the region's diversity including its many beaches, cypress groves and green hills with the dramatic backdrop of Mount Pelion. The countryside is a delight to walk through, with olive orchards and stone Kalderimi paths; these medieval paths were built by the local population in lieu of non-payment of taxes. Most of our walks offer lovely views down to the Aegean Sea and Pagasetic Gulf – an area of sea which has just a narrow passage connecting it to the Aegean. Across the peninsula there is a laid-back way of life, best enjoyed in the many tavernas.

Highlight: Walk the traditional kalderimi.

Day 4: The Trikeri Peninsula

At the south western tip of the peninsula, lies Trikeri. It is remarkably undeveloped outside of the single village perched on the high point. Both walks will meet for lunch in one of the Tavernas to enjoying outstanding views. After lunch a choice of a longer or shorter descent to the fishing village of Agia Kyriaki is offered.

We leave by the ancient route to Trikeri, perhaps having to share it with the odd tortoise. Arriving at Trikeri, there is time to wander the myriad of small passageways. After lunch we descend to the southern village of Agia Kyriaki along a delightful coastal path and finish on one of the most scenic waterfronts of the week.

Highlight: Agia Kyriaki was the 2nd most important port in Greece and our route passes a surprisingly large shipyard with a fascinating array of boats undergoing repairs.

Option 2 - A Route Through Trikeri

Distance: 9 miles (14½km)

Total ascent: 1,500 feet (450m)

In summary: From the north a coastal track offers views of the little island of Palia Trikeri, home to the Monastery of Panagia before following a little used, shady path that edges up the side of a deep cut gorge offering a sense of isolation. Soon to emerge to 360° views as we head to Trikeri for lunch. The afternoon shorter, but steeper route takes on the kalderimi to Agia Kyriaki zig-zagging its way down the southern slope direct to the fishing village.

Highlight: Choose to have lunch in a traditional taverna in Trikeri village.

Day 5: Free Day

Each week there is a free day when no guided walks are offered. This is an ideal opportunity to relax around the hotel, walk independently or visit local places of interest. The more popular options for your free day include:

Volos: The nearest city to Horto, Volos is the capital of the region, and has a lot of local interest from culture to history.

Horto: Visit the local village of Horto, or just relax around the hotel, with a range of facilities to enjoy and the Pagasetic Gulf, tempting for a swim.

Day 6: Ancient Paths And Hidden Beaches From Argalasti

Argalasti was a former municipality. It remains the hub of the area while somewhat sleepy during the week, but becomes lively during the weekly market. After enjoying the sights and sounds of the market bustle the walks take key kalderimi to the coast to explore the picture postcard bays.

USEFUL HOLIDAY INFORMATION

Essential Information

Passport Requirements

You may need to renew your British passport if you're travelling from 1 January 2021.

On the day you travel, you'll need your passport to both:

- have at least 6 months left
- be less than 10 years old (even if it has 6 months or more left)

Use the government website to see if your passport is valid for this holiday

EHIC Cards

The UK government has officially launched the Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC), which will replace the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). UK residents can now apply for one of the GHIC cards, which will gradually replace the EHIC cards as they reach their expiry dates. Every family member travelling requires a GHIC. You can make an application for yourself and on behalf of your partner and any dependent children under the age of 16. Both cards will offer equivalent protection for emergency and medically necessary healthcare needs when in the EU on a temporary stay, which includes holiday, study and business travel. Necessary healthcare includes things like

- emergency treatment and visits to A&E
- treatment for long-term or pre-existing medical conditions
- routine medical care for pre-existing conditions that need monitoring
- oxygen and kidney dialysis

The public only need to apply for their free GHIC cards when their current EHIC expires. The process is likely to take two weeks. For more information visit <https://www.nhs.uk/using-the-nhs/healthcare-abroad/apply-for-a-free-uk-global-health-insurance-card-ghic/>.

The GHIC is not an alternative to travel insurance. We advise all holidaymakers to also invest in travel insurance that covers healthcare, so they are covered for other issues that may arise, as well as cancellations and lost luggage.

Essential Equipment

To enjoy walking/hiking comfortably and safely, footwear, clothing and equipment needs to be suitable for the conditions. Safety and comfort are our priorities, so our advice is to come prepared for all eventualities.

- Walking/hiking boots providing ankle support and good grip are recommended (ideally worn in), and specialist walking socks to avoid blisters.
- Several layers of clothing, which can be added or removed, are better than a single layer (include spares).
