ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival Day

Check-in at the hotel is available from 4pm. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea on arrival.

Day 2: Charleston & Monk's House

Today's excursion day will take us to two prime Bloomsbury locations – Charleston and Monk's House. The former home of Vanessa Bell and Duncan Grant and a venue for many Bloomsbury Group meetings, Charleston is a must-visit on this holiday.

Later, we'll venture to Monk's House. Now in the hands of the National Trust, this historic house is perhaps most well-known as the home of Leonard and Virginia Woolf. The house, its gardens, and the surrounding landscapes provided much literary inspiration, with Virginia penning several well-known works in her writing lodge in the grounds of Monk's House.

Day 3: HF Book Club: Bloomsbury Group

This weekend break will focus on delving into works of historical fiction. Your group leader will facilitate discussions about the themes and topics featured in their chosen titles and there'll be an open forum to discuss opinions.

Reading List

Growing by Leonard Woolf

Overshadowed by his famous wife Virginia, Leonard began his career in the civil service in Ceylon (Sri Lanka). This is the second book in his autobiographical series and covers his career abroad. A fascinating insight into both his character and life in a British-ruled colony in the early years of the 20th century.

To the Lighthouse by Virginia Woolf

Written in 1927, To the Lighthouse is Virginia Woolf's fifth novel. Set during a family holiday on the Isle of Skye, it draws on Virginia Woolf's own memories of childhood holidays which were spent in St Ives in Cornwall. Like a stream of consciousness, the novel focuses more on the inner monologues of the characters rather than their actions. It is regarded as one of the major works of modernist literature.

Day 4: Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

ACCOMMODATION

Abingworth Hall

Country living just got cosier at this former farmhouse. Abingworth Hall is just a skip away from the village of Thakeham at the foot of the South Downs – a landscape of ancient woodland, hidden valleys, chalky cliffs, and high-backed hills so deserving of its national park status finally bestowed in 2010. While the views from the doorstep are as wow-worthy as you'd expect, the walking opportunities around the sightseeing greats such as Devil's Dyke, Seven Sisters Country Park, Kingley Vale, Parham House, and the Clayton Windmills (known locally as Jack and Jill) are equally standout. You'll also be within easy driving distance of several historic towns and cities, most fabulously Arundel, Chichester, and Brighton.

Walks talks

Our HF Holidays Leaders host guided walking information briefings before dinner on arrival days. This is followed by a group Walks Talk for information on the following day's walking delights (held before dinner every evening). Self-guided walking guests are, of course, welcome.

The walking day

Prior to setting off on walks, your HF Holidays Leader will run you through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure you have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. These can be found near the Discovery Point in the house.

Food & Drink

Led by experienced chefs, we serve a wide range of dishes made with fresh and seasonal ingredients. We always aim to source the best produce available and use home-grown herbs and vegetables from our own gardens whenever possible. Additionally, we have a licensed bar with beers, soft drinks, and a superb selection of spirits. Full-board comes as standard and includes a cream tea on arrival and a hearty breakfast on departure day.
