ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival Day

Your room will be ready from 2.30pm onwards (1pm for best and better rooms).

Afternoon tea will be provided so you can meet your fellow guests and leader. Your leader will talk you through the holiday on the first evening.

Day 2: Other Days

After a hearty breakfast, we get cracking and enjoy our first watercolour painting session. We'll enjoy a short explanation of water colour and the equipment, including the different types of paper.

Our knowledgeable leader will go on to show us the different ways to lay down paint, using two or more colours – then it's our turn to find out how they react when put together! In no time at all we'll be playing with tonal glazes and practising building up our colours.

Later, we can prepare our board for the afternoons work. We'll have fun painting a small monochrome (one single colour) landscape picture using glazing, before moving on to creating some skies.

These might include sunsets and stormy weather (by cleverly using two or more colours) and how to remove paint to form different cloud effects. By mid-morning and mid-afternoon, we'll have earned a welcome cuppa together as we exchange enthusiasm and ideas about our artwork.

Later on, we can enjoy the sociable activities on offer at the Country House or quietly relax in the bar or a cosy lounge.

Day 3: Moving On To A Landscape

Our second day starts with some tuition on colour mixing, followed by a demonstration and practice of painting distance, hills and trees. Then we spend the rest of our day totally absorbed in this fascinating and creative art form, as we are paint a simple landscape together, with our patient leader on hand to help us step-by-step along the way.

This evening we can create a small informal exhibition of our work for everyone to enjoy. This is entirely optional, but it's great fun and a very rewarding way to end our lovely holiday.

Day 4: Departure Day

Depart after a leisurely breakfast.

Sometimes things happen beyond our control. If we need to adjust your holiday programme, for whatever reason, your leader will help smooth the way.

Facilities

Free Wi-Fi, boot room and drying room, extensive garden, outdoor swimming pool, multi-purpose activity room, three lounges, library and board games to borrow

After a day strolling on the South Downs, come back to the house and its specially tailored walkers' facilities. Relax in the large gardens and sit by the pretty pond, turn your hand to croquet or practice on the putting green. Ease through a couple of lengths of the heated outdoor pool if you've still got energy to burn. Hole up in the light-filled conservatory with pretty views of the gardens or retire to the Drawing Room with its wood-panelled walls, log burner, library of books to browse and comfy seats to sink in to; there's a telescope for you to scour the night sky too. In the evening, take your seat in the bar or join fellow guests in the large ballroom for the evening activity.

Food & Drink

As at all our country houses, holidays are full board, from afternoon tea served as a welcome treat through that evening's meal to a hearty breakfast on the day of departure. Lunch is a chance to stock up on our famous picnic snacks. Food at Abingworth Hall is varied and tasty and has a strong emphasis on ingredients from the area and seasonal produce. Once a week the dining room, which has a giant brick fireplace at its heart, hosts a Local Food Night, when, over a sociable evening, you might try a five-course feast of local Sussex flavours. Look out for the Sussex Churdle, a traditional, meaty ploughboy lunch, local Chiddingly beef cooked with black olives and Sussex smokies, smoked haddock served in a prawn sauce. Cap it all with a Sussex Pond Pudding, a pud that's part of the honourable tradition of British dishes with names to pique the interest more than the appetite, which is actually bright and zingy, suety and syrupy all at the same time
