

Northumberland Coast Path Trail

Tour Style: Guided trails

Destinations: Northumberland, United Kingdom & England

Trip code: ALLNP

Trip Walking Grade: 2

HOLIDAY OVERVIEW

Stretching from the birdlife-rich dunes of Cresswell in the south to the walled border town of Berwick in the north, this route along the Northumberland Coast Path follows one of the finest stretches of National Landscapes-awarded coastline in the country. Over the course of 62 miles, you'll enjoy long stretches of golden sands, timeless fishing villages, and incredible castles that played a key role in British history. You'll also walk through no less than two National Nature Reserves for some wildlife-spotting and spend time on the ancient and myth-steeped tidal island of Lindisfarne.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

- Comfortable en-suite rooms in our partner accommodation(s)
- Cooked or continental breakfast every morning
- Three-course evening meals, plus tea & coffee
- Guided walks with an experienced HF Holidays Leader
- All transport to and from walks where necessary

HOLIDAY HIGHLIGHTS

- Exploring the island of Lindisfarne, also known as Holy Island
- Discovering some of Britain's finest coastal walking
- Spotting a wealth of wildlife as you walk
- Learning of border battles, Viking visitors, and Northumbrian tales
- Marvelling at Warkworth, Bamburgh, and Dunstanburgh castles
- A more personalised experience thanks to small group sizes (maximum 15 people)

TRIP SUITABILITY

Your fitness

Having a solid base of fitness before your holiday will ensure you've the best chance of completing the holiday and enjoying it to boot. Here's a few simple tips to help you get fit and ready for your challenge:

- Get out walking - whether the weather, get out there, and start building your fitness months before your holiday
- Build your distance gradually and get a number of 6-8hr hill days in
- Ideally, try and do two consecutive days training if possible
- Take the stairs every time
- Train on different terrain
- Train with your day pack and your walking boots too, to ensure they're well worn in before your holiday
- Other sports help improve your walking fitness too. The best ones are jogging, cycling, swimming, which will build your stamina, and yoga which will help strengthen your core and improve balance
- Time training will help ensure you enjoy your holiday to the max.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival Day

Check-in at the hotel is available from 4pm. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea on arrival.

Day 2: Cresswell To Warkworth

Distance: 12 miles (19km)

Ascent: 380 ft (120m)

Walking south to north, our trail begins at wildlife-rich Druridge Bay. It's eight miles of golden sands, dunes, and is home to a string of nature reserves with a fascinating array of birdlife. From Druridge, we pass through the bustling port of Amble with views out to the RSPB reserve of Coquet Island. Our trail ends at Warkworth, known for its impressive castle and equally impressive selection of coffee shops and a fantastic chocolatier.

Day 3: Warkworth To Craster

Distance: 13 miles (21km)

Ascent: 820 ft (250m)

We'll walk through dunes and coastal grasslands to Alnmouth, passing St Cuthbert's cross along the way. Continue through the town and back out along the beach to the former smuggling haunt - now sleepy fishing village - of Boulmer. North from here is Sugar Sands and the rocky headland that's home to hundreds of kittiwakes during the summer months. The final leg of our journey takes us to Craster, home to the famous Robson's Smokehouse, known for their Craster kippers.

Day 4: Craster To Seahouses

Distance: 10 miles (16km)

Ascent: 380 ft (120m)

From Craster, we'll set off over the rocky headland and ruins of Dunstanburgh Castle, which overlooks swathes of golden sands and Embleton Bay. There's Newton Pool Nature Reserve to explore before we cross Beadnell Bay to arrive at the busy port of Seahouses. From here you can spot the Farne Islands in the distance, a cluster of isles home to the UK's largest colony of grey seals.

Day 5: Seahouses To Belford

Distance: 11.5 miles (17.5km)

Ascent: 800 ft (240m)

Probably one of the most photographed sections of coast is on our route today as our walk takes us through the pretty village of Bamburgh. The vision of the mighty sea facing Bamburgh Castle set behind golden sand dunes is one that thousands of visitors flock here to see each year, and rightly so. Leaving the hubbub of Bamburgh, the peace and tranquillity of Budle Bay welcomes us – another fantastic spot for birdlife. Heading inland a little, Belford is our final call. Sample a little of the local brew at the Blue Bell, or treat yourself to some cake at the café.

Day 6: Belford, Holy Island And Fenwick

Distance: 6.5 miles (10.5km)

Ascent: 540 ft (160m)

We contrast coastal scenes with woodland and farmland today and have left plenty of time for a visit to Holy Island. Linked to the mainland by a tidal causeway, this sacred place is where you can follow in the footsteps of St Aidan and the ancient order of monks who built their priory here nearly 1,400 years ago. Don't miss the museum for a chance to learn more about the 8th century manuscript known as the Lindisfarne Gospels.

Day 7: Fenwick To Berwick Upon Tweed

Distance: 12 miles (19.5km)

Ascent: 450 ft (140m)

We'll complete a much more remote section of coast for the final leg of our journey, leaving behind the busier beaches to enjoy the peace and solitude of Cheswick Sands Nature Reserve and Cocklawburn Beach. The walled border town of Berwick upon Tweed marks the end of our trail, as we reach the border with Scotland, and the end of the Northumberland Coast Path.

Day 8: Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

ACCOMMODATION

Nether Grange

You can tell that you're in for something special at this former 18th century granary in the heart of Alnmouth – the postcard-pretty coastal village treasured for its colourful cottages, superb walking routes, and peaceful beach where the River Aln meets the North Sea (in its heyday, it was a working river-port, exporting grain, wool, coal, and even the odd pipe of Madeira wine). Not only will you be a 40-minute drive from Northumberland National Park, but also within easy travelling distance of several visit-worthy castles, including Alnwick, Lindisfarne, Dunstanburgh, and Warkworth. If the weather's nice, a boat trip to the Farne Islands that lie just offshore midway between the villages of Seahouses and Bamburgh rewards with sightings of England's largest grey seal colonies.

Country House Accommodation

Rooms

Designed with your comfort in mind, Nether Grange has 36 well-appointed guest rooms available in two categories: Classic and Premium.

Classic Rooms are comfortable en-suite guest rooms, ideal for a peaceful night's sleep. Amenities include free Wi-Fi, tea and coffee-making facilities, toiletries (hand wash, shampoo, and shower gel), and a TV.

Premium Rooms are more spacious en-suite guest rooms*. Amenities include free Wi-Fi, tea and coffee-making facilities, toiletries (hand wash, shampoo, body lotion, shower gel), and a 32-inch TV. Extras include bathrobes, slippers.

We love: The sea-facing rooms are especially lovely.

The Choose Your Room service is available at our UK country houses, allowing you the option of choosing and confirming a specific room for an extra charge of £30 per room. This is subject to availability. Upgrade supplements apply.

Check in & check out

You are welcome to check in from 4:00pm at the earliest. On arrival, you'll enjoy a complimentary cream tea and get to meet your fellow guests, our HF Holidays Leaders, and the rest of the friendly team.

On the day of departure, we kindly ask all guests to check out by 10:00am. You'll be asked to settle your bill prior to leaving. You may, of course, make a charitable donation to our HF Holidays Pathways Fund if you wish. Please note that we only accept card payments.

About Your Stay

A warm welcome

We want you to feel comfortable from the moment you arrive. You'll find a welcome pack in your room with guest registration forms, menus, order forms for dinners and picnic lunches, the Wi-Fi password, and the front door code. Our houses are locked at night, so we recommend noting the Duty Manager's number on arrival in case of an emergency (or getting locked out).

Evening entertainment

While evening entertainment varies from house to house, the HF Holidays Big Pub Quiz held after dinner on Wednesdays is a weekly staple. Your HF Holidays Leader may be around for tips on guided and self-guided walking routes as well as visit-worthy local attractions.

Walks talks

Our HF Holidays Leaders host guided walking information briefings before dinner on arrival days. This is followed by a group Walks Talk for information on the following day's walking delights (held before dinner every evening). Self-guided walking guests are, of course, welcome.

The walking day

Prior to setting off on walks, your HF Holidays Leader will run you through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure you have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. These can be found near the Discovery Point in the house.

Food & Drink

Led by experienced chefs, we serve a wide range of dishes made with fresh and seasonal ingredients. We always aim to source the best produce available and use home-grown herbs and vegetables from our own gardens whenever possible. Additionally, we have a licensed bar with beers, soft drinks, and a superb selection of spirits. Full-board comes as standard and includes a cream tea on arrival and a hearty breakfast on departure day.

HF Holidays understands the importance of managing allergens effectively to ensure food is safe for guests with food allergies. Whilst we are always able to confidently inform guests which allergens are present in our ingredients and dishes, we are unable to guarantee absolute freedom from the 14 main allergens in our kitchens. Vegetarian and vegan menu choices are available. If you have allergies, food intolerances, or any special dietary requirements, please inform our reservation team at the time of booking.

Exit the A1 onto the A1068 towards Alnwick. At the roundabout turn right (it's not well signposted), following the A1068 towards Alnmouth. Go straight ahead at the first roundabout then left at the second roundabout onto the B1338.

By Air

The nearest airport is Newcastle International Airport. Take the metro to Newcastle Central station, then the train to Alnmouth - a straightforward journey taking just over an hour.

LOCAL AREA

Whether you're enjoying a guided or self-guided walking holiday, there's always the opportunity to linger for longer. Here's our pick of the very best things to see and do within easy travelling distance of Nether Grange.

Alnmouth

This pretty coastal village is adored for its colourful cottages, superb walking routes, peaceful bays, and deserted sandy beaches where the River Aln meets the North Sea. There's a small tidal harbour, a handful of small shops, and several pubs and cafés.

Alnwick Castle

A 15-minute drive away, the market town of Alnwick is dominated by the second-largest inhabited castle in the country. Home to the Duke of Northumberland's family for over 700 years, it has featured in Harry Potter films and Downton Abbey specials.

Alnwick Gardens

The castle's 12-acre garden is home to a collection of over 4,000 plant varieties. Highlights include the world's largest Tai Haku Cherry Orchard, a cascade comprising of 120 water jets, and the world's largest treehouse restaurant set 18 metres above ground level.

Bamburgh Castle

Home of the Armstrong family since 1894 and crowning nine acres of the Great Whin Sill, this so-called king of castles has stood guard above the Northumberland coast for thousands of years. The site is by the seaside village of Bamburgh, a 35-minute drive away.

Farne Islands

Located off Northumberland's coast in the North Sea, this groups of islands is home to a breeding colony of thousands of seabirds and grey seals. Between March and October, regular boat trips run from Seahouses harbour - a 45-minute drive away.

Lindisfarne (Holy Island)

An hour's drive away, this sacred place is where you can follow in the footsteps of the ancient monks who built their priory here nearly 1,400 years ago. Don't miss the museum for a chance to learn more about the 8th century manuscript known as the Lindisfarne Gospels.

Warkworth Castle

Crowning the hilltop above the River Coquet, Northumberland's hilltop fortress and hermitage was used by William Shakespeare as the setting for several scenes of his Henry IV plays. Located in the village of Warkworth, it's just a 10-minute drive away.

Cragside House

A 40-minute drive away, this National Trust-owned house was the first in the world to be lit by hydroelectric power. Highlights include one of the largest rock gardens in Europe, a rhododendron-filled garden, and over 40 miles of lovely lakeside and woodland walks.

Seaton Delaval Hall

Designed by acclaimed Baroque architect, Sir John Vanbrugh, this National Trust-owned mansion is a 40-minute drive away. The grounds are gorgeous, especially the formal rose garden that was created in the 1950s and 1960s by Lady Hastings.

Hadrian's Wall

A 90-minute drive away, this World Heritage Site built in AD 122 extends for 73 miles. Don't miss the Roman Vindolanda Fort & Museum for fascinating artefacts, reconstructed turrets and temples, and insight of daily life in a Roman garrison town.

Edinburgh

Scotland's capital is just a one-hour train ride from Alnmouth station and worth the effort for its wealth of attractions. Must-dos include visiting Edinburgh Castle, spending time at the National Museum of Scotland, climbing Arthur's Seat, and strolling through Holyrood Park.

Newcastle-Upon-Tyne

Simply known as Newcastle, this vibrant city is an hour's drive away. Highlights include admiring the iconic Tyne Bridge, relaxing at Newcastle City Baths, crossing the Gateshead Millennium Bridge, and visiting Gateshead's Baltic Centre for Contemporary Art.
