ITINERARY - GUIDED TRAIL

Day 1 Arrival Day

Check-in at the hotel is available from 16:00. If you are a member you can arrive at the house from 14:00. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea at 16:30 and meet other guests.

Day 2 Cresswell to Warkworth

Distance: 11.5 miles (18km)

Ascent: 380 ft (120m)

Walking south to north, our trail begins at wildlife-rich Druridge Bay. It's eight miles of golden sands, dunes, and is home to a string of nature reserves with a fascinating array of birdlife. From Druridge, we pass through the bustling port of Amble with views out to the RSPB reserve of Coquet Island. Our trail ends at Warkworth, known for its impressive castle and equally impressive selection of coffee shops and a fantastic chocolatier.

Day 3 Warkworth to Craster

Distance: 13.5 miles (21.5km)

Ascent: 820 ft (250m)

We'll walk through dunes and coastal grasslands to Alnmouth, passing St Cuthbert's cross along the way. Continue through the town and back out along the beach to the former smuggling haunt - now sleepy fishing village - of Boulmer. North from here is Sugar Sands and the rocky headland that's home to hundreds of kittiwakes during the summer months. The final leg of our journey takes us to Craster, home to the famous Robson's Smokehouse, known for their Craster kippers.

Day 4 Craster to Seahouses

Distance: 10.5 miles (16.5km)

Ascent: 380 ft (120m)

From Craster, we'll set off over the rocky headland and ruins of Dunstanburgh Castle, which overlooks swathes of golden sands and Embleton Bay. There's Newton Pool Nature Reserve to explore before we cross Beadnell Bay to arrive at the busy port of Seahouses. From here you can spot the Farne Islands in the distance, a cluster of isles home to the UK's largest colony of grey seals.

Day 5 Seahouses to Belford

Distance: 10 miles (16km)

Ascent: 800 ft (240m)

Probably one of the most photographed sections of coast is on our route today as our walk takes us through the pretty village of Bamburgh. The vision of the mighty sea facing Bamburgh Castle set behind golden sand dunes is one that thousands of visitors flock here to see each year, and rightly so. Leaving the hubbub of Bamburgh, the peace and tranquillity of Budle Bay welcomes us – another fantastic spot for birdlife. Heading inland a little, Belford is our final call. Sample a little of the local brew at the Blue Bell, or treat yourself to some cake at the café.

Day 6 Belford, Holy Island and Fenwick

Distance: 8 miles (12.5km)

Ascent: 750 ft (220m)

We contrast coastal scenes with woodland and farmland today and have left plenty of time for a visit to Holy Island. Linked to the mainland by a tidal causeway, this sacred place is where you can follow in the footsteps of St Aidan and the ancient order of monks who built their priory here nearly 1,400 years ago. Don't miss the museum for a chance to learn more about the 8th century manuscript known as the Lindisfarne Gospels.

Day 7 Fenwick to Berwick upon Tweed

Distance: 12 miles (19.5km)

Ascent: 450 ft (140m)

We'll complete a much more remote section of coast for the final leg of our journey, leaving behind the busier beaches to enjoy the peace and solitude of Cheswick Sands Nature Reserve and Cocklawburn Beach. The walled border town of Berwick upon Tweed marks the end of our trail, as we reach the border with Scotland, and the end of the Northumberland Coast Path.

Day 8 Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

DAILY WALK OPTIONS

Moderate walking grade 6

Longer full day walks with more ascent and varied terrain. Good fitness and agility are needed. Typically, 9-10 miles (15-16km) with around 1,500ft (460m) of ascent.

ACCOMMODATION

Nether Grange

You can tell that you're in for something special at this former 18th century granary in the heart of Alnmouth – the postcard-pretty coastal village treasured for its colourful cottages, superb walking routes, and peaceful beach where the River Aln meets the North Sea (in its heyday, it was a working river-port, exporting grain, wool, coal, and even the odd pipe of Madeira wine). Not only will you be a 40-minute drive from Northumberland National Park, but also within easy travelling distance of several visit-worthy castles, including Alnwick, Lindisfarne, Dunstanburgh, and Warkworth. If the weather's nice, a boat trip to the Farne Islands that lie just offshore midway between the villages of Seahouses and Bamburgh rewards with sightings of England's largest grey seal colonies.

Then & now

It was most likely that Cadogan Hodgson Cadogan, Justice of the Peace and later High Sheriff of Northumberland, converted the granary into a spacious family house for his wife, seven children, teacher, five servants, and coachman in the 1870s. He replaced many of the original features, adding a new grand staircase between the ground and first floors. This was lit by a stained glass window that remains today – you'll notice how one pane has the initials CHC as a stamp of ownership. Nether Grange was then purchased by banker John William Pease in 1875 and used as a family holiday home. His son John was Baron Wardington of Alnmouth and later Chairman of Lloyds Bank while his daughter Ella was a school governor and Chair of the parish council (the nearby Pease's Park at the back of the village on Riverside Road largely owes its origin to her). The house was later reimagined as a hotel and has been part of our HF Holidays line-up since 1947.

Nowadays, you'll find 36 well-appointed guest rooms in two categories (Classic and Premium), many of which are sea-facing. In September 2026, Nether Grange was also awarded the coveted Visit England ROSE Award for hospitality excellence! Inside there's a large comfortable lounge, a dining room for a wide range of dishes made with fresh and seasonal ingredients, a licensed bar, and a conservatory. The Discovery Point offers a wide range of local area maps, route guides, and easy-to-follow information for self-guided walks. A ballroom, boot and drying room, elevated terraced garden, outdoor chess set, and books and games to borrow during your stay complete the thoughtful touches. And then, of course, you'll be just a stone's throw from Alnmouth Beach, a wide bay that's great for sandcastle building and wildlife watching (swimming in the estuary is not recommended due to the strong current).

Check-In & Check-Out

You are welcome to check in from 4pm at the earliest. HF Members can check in earlier, from 2pm. On arrival, you'll enjoy a complimentary cream tea and get to meet your fellow guests, our HF Holidays Leaders, and the rest of the friendly team. Check out 10am.

A warm welcome
We want you to feel comfortable from the moment you arrive. You'll find a welcome pack in your room with guest registration forms, menus, order forms for dinners and picnic lunches, the Wi-Fi password, and the front door code. Our houses are locked at night, so we recommend noting the Duty Manager's number on arrival in case of an emergency (or getting locked out).

Helping you enjoy the Great Outdoors - A natural focus on walks

Walks talks and Discovery Points
Our founder, country pastor turned social innovator, Thomas Arthur Leonard, was passionate about encouraging people to explore the countryside. His legacy continues in HF's continued focus on walking. Many guests choose to travel with us on guided or self-guided walking holidays, and as such, evenings at our houses are often busy with walk leaders hosting various briefings and talks. On guided walking holiday arrival days, there are walking information briefings before dinner, and for the duration of any guided walking holiday there will be a Walks Talk before (or on occasion after dinner), to go through the following day's walk options. Self-guided walking guests, and those on special interest holidays (where there is free time to explore independently), are of course welcome to also join in these Walks Talks - please talk to the team locally if you have any queries. Our Discovery Points are filled with handy maps and route notes, designed to ensure everyone, not just those booked on a guided walking holiday, can enjoy the beautiful countryside settings that our HF houses enjoy.

The walking day
Prior to setting off on guided walks, our HF Holidays Leaders run through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure walkers have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. These can be found near the Discovery Point in the house.
