

3-Night Western Yorkshire Dales Outdoor Escapes Holiday

Tour Style: Outdoor Escapes

Destinations: Yorkshire Dales & England

Trip code: SDBOE

2, 3 & 4

HOLIDAY OVERVIEW

Experience the beautiful scenery of the Yorkshire Dales and Howgill Fells. Each day we'll offer three options, ranging from relaxing shorter strolls, to more challenging longer walks. Our flexible programme allows you to choose the option that suits your mood.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

- High quality en-suite accommodation in our country house
- Full board from dinner upon arrival to breakfast on departure day
- 2 days guided walking
- Use of our comprehensive Discovery Point
- Choice of up to three guided walks each walking day
- The services of HF Holidays Walking Leaders
- Any transport to and from the walks

HOLIDAYS HIGHLIGHTS

When you meet the Barefoot Shepherdess. Let us introduce you to Alison O'Neill, working shepherd, author and designer, who will lead an exploration of a hidden corner of the Dales to uncover the drama of places like Cautley Spout. As you walk up the rough moraine to the base of this almost 200m drop waterfall, you'll be amazed by what you discover – if this landscape was in the Lakes the place would be overrun but here it is crowd-free and little-known. As you carry on down the valley, Alison will share stories of her cultural heritage, farming and how it has shaped our landscape for an incredible insight.

TRIP SUITABILITY

This trip has a choice of 3 walk options each walking day and the walks range from level 2 to 4. Most of the days include a full day walking with distances covered upto 10 miles and with 2,350ft of ascent.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival Day

Join us at our Thorns Hall Country House for an action-packed short break. If the weather is fine we can take a short pre-dinner stroll into Sedbergh to help get your bearings. After a delicious 3-course evening meal, there's time to relax with the rest of the group and look forward to the adventures to come.

Day 2: Wensleydale & Wild Boar Fell

Option 1 - Wensleydale Highlights

Distance: 7 miles (11km)

Total ascent: 500 feet (160m)

In Summary: Follow the green valley of Wensleydale from Askrigg to Hawes. We'll pass Hardraw Force, the highest single drop waterfall in England at 100ft (payable locally).

Highlight: Time to explore the pretty market town of Hawes and to sample some of its famous Wensleydale cheese.

Option 2 - Semer Water

Distance: 8 miles (13km)

Total ascent: 1,400 feet (420m)

In Summary: Explore the rolling hills to the south of Wensleydale. Our route visits Semer Water, Yorkshire's only true natural lake, then climbs over the ridge to Hawes.

Highlight: Putting your feet up and enjoying real Yorkshire hospitality and a well deserved pint in our much loved haunt - the Crown.

Option 3 - Wild Boar Fell

Distance: 10 miles (16km)

Total ascent: 2,000 feet (620m)

In Summary: Climb up onto the high moorland summit of Wild Boar Fell via Uldale Gill before crossing a patchwork of fields to the village of Ravenstonedale.

Highlight: This is a real 'away from it all' walk through beautiful upland scenery, with a fantastic pub at the end of the day.

Day 3: Hidden Gems Of The Howgills

The Howgill Fells are a real hidden gem - miles of peaceful, green hills waiting to be explored.

Option 1 - Strolls With The Shepherdess

Distance: 5 miles (8.5km)

Total ascent: 500 feet (150m)

In Summary: From the quirky Cross Keys Temperance House we're greeted with scenes of Cautley Spout waterfall, before a riverside walk takes us to Farfield Mill and on to Sedbergh.

Highlight: Local stories and histories as you walk - you'll be accompanied by hill farmer, designer and author - Alison O'Neill, the Shepherdess.

Option 2 - On Top Of The Howgills

Distance: 9 miles (14.5km)

Total ascent: 1,900 feet (580m)

In Summary: This circular walk from Sedbergh ascends to the summit of Arant Haw in the Howgill Fells. We then descend over the Nab to join the Dales Way and return to Sedbergh along the River Rawthey.

Highlight: The chance for a local insight into one of the true hidden gems of the area - Brigflatts.

Option 3 - Black Force & The Howgills

Distance: 9½ miles (15km)

Total ascent: 2,350 feet (720m)

In Summary: Carlin Gill takes us up and past one of the most spectacular high-drop waterfalls - Black Force, before we head onto the Calf - the highest point in the Howgills.

Highlight: The chance to get off the beaten track and enjoy having this stunning landscape all to yourself.

Day 4: Departure Day & Local Walk

Make the most of your final morning with the opportunity to join a half-day guided walk around Sedbergh.

Rawthey Valley

In Summary: Explore the green valleys around Sedbergh on this circular walk. We'll head through the fields onto the lower slopes, then return beside the River Rawthey.

Highlight: Our walk ends back in Sedbergh where you may like to take lunch in one of the town's pubs, or explore the celebrated second-hand bookshops before your journey home.

Distance: 4½ miles (7km)

Total ascent: 750 feet (220m)

ACCOMMODATION

Thorns Hall

Situated in Sedbergh, in West Yorkshire's portion of the famous Dales, at the foot of the Howgill Fells, Thorns Hall offers cosy, country-pile atmosphere amid beautiful rural surroundings. Dating from 1535, the small manor house is home to 25 bedrooms as well as wood-panelled public rooms, open fireplaces and a cobbled courtyard that ooze historic charm. From every aspect the hills can be seen rising around the house and a short hop takes you from the house to the fells and upland scenery. Marvel at the 24 arch Ribbleshead Viaduct, climb the distinctive summit of Ingleborough, one of the Three Peaks, explore classic limestone scenery and stop in at one of Appleby's historic pubs for a well-earned toast.

Matchless Country House Accommodation

Accommodation Info

Rooms

Tea & coffee-making facilities, TV, Hairdryer, Toiletries, Wi-Fi

Stay in one of the Hall's smartly presented rooms in the main house or cottages across the courtyard. With 25 rooms, Thorns Hall has plenty of space and there's a range of Good, Better and Best Rooms to choose from. Our pick is Room 25, a very spacious escape on the ground floor with a great brick fireplace, comfy seats to sit in and big bed as well as gorgeous views of the gardens. Look out too for large and airy Room 4 and the more intimate Room 13 with its exposed wood ceiling and courtyard view.

All 'Good' rooms are ensuite and furnished to a high standard. There are also several 'Better' and 'Best' Rooms that are either larger or have a desirable view, a more luxurious mattress, larger television, enhanced toiletries and a fluffy bathrobe & slippers – upgrade your stay for just an extra £15-20 per person per night. You can choose a specific room for an extra £30 per room, subject to availability. Upgrade supplements still apply.

Facilities

Free Wi-Fi, boot room and drying room, formal garden, large reception hall, two lounges, library and board games to borrow

After a day exploring the Dales, come back to the house and its specially tailored walkers' facilities. At the front of the house there's a pretty, formal garden that makes a pleasant spot to relax in. Take up residence in the lounge below the exposed wood beams or seek refuge in the small, dark wood-panelled bar with its oversized fireplace and log burner for an atmospheric corner to kick back in and catch up with fellow guests over a local ale or two.

Food & Drink

As at all our country houses, holidays are full board, from afternoon tea served as a welcome treat through that evening's meal to a hearty breakfast on the day of departure. Lunch is a chance to stock up on our famous picnic snacks. Food at Thorns Hall is varied and tasty and has a strong emphasis on ingredients from the area and seasonal produce. Once a week the dining room in the converted barn hosts a Local Food Night, when, over a sociable evening, you might try a five-course feast of regional flavours, from twice baked Wensleydale Cheese Souffle to Lancashire black pudding and Cumbrian rump of lamb.

By Car:

Leave the M6 at junction 37 and follow the A684 east for 5 miles to Sedbergh. On reaching Sedbergh follow the road round to the right into Finkle Street (avoiding the main street), then almost immediately turn left at a small roundabout into Back Lane. At the next mini-roundabout bear left onto the A683 following signs to Kirkby Stephen. Thorns Hall is a further 100 yards along the road on the left. Look out for our sign. A car park is available in the grounds with free parking.

Travelling From Overseas

For most guests the most convenient option is to book a flight to Manchester Airport. There are direct trains every hour from Manchester Airport to Oxenholme - this is straightforward journey - allow 1½ hours to Oxenholme. See www.nationalrail.co.uk for train times.

From Oxenholme station you can complete the journey to Sedbergh using our transfer or by taxi (see above).

Flying to London Heathrow airport is another option, but has a longer onward train journey - allow at least 4 hours to reach Oxenholme. From Heathrow first take the train to London Paddington station. Next take the Underground train to London Euston. Finally the main line train from London Euston to Oxenholme takes 2½ hours. See www.nationalrail.co.uk for train times.

LOCAL AREA

Sedbergh sits at the foot of the Howgill Fells, a peaceful corner of the Yorkshire Dales National Park.

The centre of Sedbergh is just a few minutes walk from Thorns Hall. The town has a range of facilities including a small supermarket, post office, newsagent, pubs and a bank. Now famed as England's 'book town', Sedbergh has many second-hand book shops and a good range of pubs and cafés. A wider range of facilities are available in the larger town of Kendal, about 10 miles away.

During your visit to Thorns Hall you may enjoy visiting the following places of interest:

Sizergh Castle

Situated near Kendal, about 25 minutes' drive from Sedbergh. Sizergh Castle is a fine medieval house, surrounded by beautiful gardens. www.nationaltrust.org.uk/sizergh

Levens Hall

Visit this stately home, famous for its magnificent formal garden and its topiary displays. Levens Hall is south of Kendal, about 30 minutes' drive from Sedbergh. www.levenshall.co.uk

Settle To Carlisle Railway

Ride England's most scenic railway through the Yorkshire Dales from Garsdale station, about 10 miles from Sedbergh. Heading south you could cross the famous Ribbleshead viaduct and visit Settle, Skipton and Saltaire. Heading north you could head to the small market town of Appleby, or the border city of Carlisle. www.settle-carlisle.co.uk

Hawes & Wensleydale

A 30 minute drive through the Yorkshire Dales will take you to the small town of Hawes. Visit the famous creamery that produces Wensleydale Cheese. You may want to continue through the valley of Wensleydale, well known as the setting for All Creatures Great & Small. www.wensleydale.co.uk

Kendal

The market town of Kendal, about 20 minutes' drive from Thorns Hall has a good range of specialist shops. The excellent Museum of Lakeland Life and Industry is also worth a visit. www.lakelandmuseum.org.uk

Lake District

A 40 minute drive will take you to Lake Windermere, gateway to exploring the beautiful scenery of the Lake District National Park. Here you could take a steamer trip on the lake, or visit the visitors centre at Brockhole. www.windermere-lakecruises.co.uk or www.brockhole.co.uk

Safety On Your Holiday

On the first evening of your holiday your leaders give a short talk about safety on walks which we would like you to attend. Walks may be changed for safety reasons and are subject to a maximum and minimum number of guests. Leaders always consider the safety of the group as a whole, and may need to alter or curtail the walk if the conditions dictate. Your leader may refuse to accept a guest while clothing, equipment or behaviour is unsuitable. In the event of a problem all leaders carry a mobile phone, first aid kit, group shelter, spare maps and a compass.

Please note: If you choose to leave the group your leader is no longer responsible for you.

If you have a particular health condition or disability please put this on your guest registration form. This information will be confidential to your leaders and the house manager, but leaders do need to take account of any issues when planning walks.
