ITINERARY – ITINERARY

Day 1 Arrival Day

Check-in at the hotel is available from 16:00. If you are a member you can arrive at the house from 14:00. Enjoy a complimentary cream tea at 16:30 and meet other guests.

Day 2 Long Mynd and Ragleth

Distance: 13 miles (20.5km)

Ascent: 2,250 feet (680m)

In summary: Leaving the house through Rectory Woods, we'll follow the lower slopes of the Long Mynd, passing through the famous Carding Mill Valley to reach the quiet and hidden 'Batch' valley. The route continues into Jonathan's Hollow, and upwards to the northernmost end of the Long Mynd plateau. Following the ancient Port Way which runs along the heather-clad ridge of Long Mynd, we'll pass an ancient tumulus to reach Pole Bank, the highest point on Long Mynd at 516m. On a clear day Cadair Idris is visible to the west with the jagged quartzite outcrops of the Stiperstones ridge in the foreground.

From Pole Cottage, we'll follow grassy paths across Round Hill and Callow Hill watching out for wild ponies grazing the common land, before descending to the pretty village of Little Stretton. After crossing the A49 which runs through the Stretton Valley, the route climbs steeply up Ragleth Hill to follow another stunning ridgeline with 360-degree panoramic views of the surrounding hills and valleys. Our descent takes us through woodlands on the side of Hazler Hill and down through Snatchfield Valley back to Church Stretton. From the town it is a short ascent through Rectory Fields to Longmynd House.

Day 3 Hope Bowdler Hill, Caer Caradoc and The Lawley

Distance: 12.5 miles (20km)

Ascent: 2,350 (720m)

In summary: After a short coach journey (5 minutes approx.), we'll arrive at the start of the second stage of the Stretton Skyline. We'll ascend past the Gaer Stone and traverse the stunning ridgeline and two cairned summits of Hope Bowdler Hill. A short descent takes us down to the ancient Cwms Lane from which we'll ascend to the iconic Three Fingers Rock on the southern end of Caer Caradoc.

Hear about the myths and legends of Caractacus as we follow an ancient route to reach the ramparts of an Iron Age hillfort at the summit of Caer Caradoc and be wowed by 360-degree views. Passing Little Caradoc, we'll descend to the valley floor, contouring the lower slopes of the Lawley. We'll then ascend the final majestic ridge of the Lawley with its summit marked by a pole and a bird, visible for miles around. The path continues along the ridge southwards before dropping down to Comley and the lower slopes of Caer Caradoc before crossing the valley to reach the village of All Stretton. From here we'll wind our way along field paths and quiet roads back to Church Stretton and Longmynd House.

Day 4 Departure Day

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before making your way home.

About your stay

A warm welcome

We want you to feel comfortable from the moment you arrive. You'll find a welcome pack in your room with guest registration forms, menus, order forms for dinners and picnic lunches, the Wi-Fi password, and the front door code. Our houses are locked at night, so we recommend noting the Duty Manager's number on arrival in case of an emergency (or getting locked out).

Evening entertainment

While evening entertainment varies from house to house, HF Holidays Inter-House Quiz night held after dinner on Wednesdays is a weekly staple. Your HF Holidays leader may be around for tips on guided and self-guided walking routes as well as visit-worthy local attractions.

Walks talks

Our HF Holidays walk leaders host guided walking information briefings before dinner on guided walking holiday arrival days. This is followed by a group Walks Talk for information on the following day's guided walks (held before dinner every evening). Self-guided walking guests are, of course, welcome.

The walking day

Prior to setting off on guided walks, your HF Holidays Leader will run you through a short safety briefing. There's also an up-to-date weather forecast on display at the house to ensure you have appropriate clothing and footwear. If you choose to do your own walks or are on a self-guided walking holiday, we ask that you please complete an Independent Walker Card each day. These can be found near the Discovery Point in the house.
