Tour Style: European Centre Based Destination: Spain
Trip code: BMLML
2 & 4

HOLIDAY OVERVIEW

---

The beautiful limestone landscapes of the Marina Alta provide lots of great walks with views over the glistening Mediterranean. Walk through villages lined with citrus and almond groves, explore spectacular ridges including the historic Caballo Verde and visit nearby dramatic gorge, the Barranco del Infierno. This tucked away yet easily accessed location is a gem in itself, offering a relaxing break from busy life, but it also connects you with wonderful Spanish culture including rich local cuisine. The glorious mountains of the Costa Blanca are known as the Marina Alta. These limestone mountains contain just a handful of tiny villages and offer outstanding walking. On the lower slopes you'll find rich terraces of oranges, almonds and cherries. Higher up, the rough hillsides are crowned by dramatic serrated ridges that offer some challenging walking and distant sea views. The mountains are criss-crossed by a myriad of tracks and paths. Some of these, used for centuries by farmers and shepherds, connect remote settlements and villages and provide access to farms and fields. The province of Alicante played an important role in the history of the region during the seven centuries of the Reconquest from the Moors. A vast variety of castles and watchtowers remain as evidence of the battle between the two forces.

Passing through a natural rock arch and finally arriving in the valley bottom we can admire the waves of stone formed by the river. We must now retrace our many steps back up to the road taking in different panoramas. Our route back to the hotel is via quiet roads and lanes.
