ITINERARY - ITINERARY

Day 1 Arrival in Aracena

Fly from the UK to Faro and transfer to our hotel in Aracena. The journey from Faro Airport takes approximately 2 hours to 2 hours 30 minutes by road. If time allows, we'll offer a short introductory walk around the local area.

Day 2 Aracena and Linares de la Sierra

Today's walks take us through the Sierra de Aracena y Picos de Aroche Natural Park, one of Andalucía's most important protected landscapes. Mediterranean woodland blankets the hills, with holm oak, cork oak and chestnut trees providing welcome shade along the trails.

Both options walk through Linares de la Sierra, a traditional village surrounded by wooded hills and fertile countryside.

Option 1: Linares de la Sierra to Aracena

Distance: 4.5 miles (7 km)

Ascent: 150 feet (50 m)

Descent: 700 feet (220 m)

Starting in Linares de la Sierra, we follow a gently undulating route through Mediterranean woodland towards Aracena. With considerably more descent than ascent, this is the gentler of today's two options.

Option 2: Aracena and Linares de la Sierra

Distance: 7.5 miles (12 km)

Ascent: 940 feet (280 m)

Descent: 940 feet (280 m)

Our longer circular walk begins in Aracena and leads through the surrounding hills to Linares de la Sierra. We return via the wooded slopes of La Molinilla, passing through forests of oak and chestnut along the way.

Day 3 Zumajo Dam and the Orange Groves

The province of Huelva has a mining history stretching back thousands of years. Today's walks explore the distinctive landscape around Rio Tinto, where riverside trails, forest paths and peaceful orange groves contrast with the area's remarkable industrial heritage. We will pass by an active mine and enjoy a stop at a viewpoint on the way to the start of our walk.

Option 1: El Campillo to Rio Tinto

Distance: 5.5 miles (9 km)

Ascent: 1,000 feet (300 m)

Descent: 1,000 feet (300 m)

Starting in El Campillo, we follow quiet trails towards Rio Tinto. Our route takes us beside orange groves and through areas of woodland, offering a gentler introduction to this striking landscape.

Option 2: Rio Tinto Mining Village and the Orange Groves

Distance: 7.5 miles (12 km)

Ascent: 1,050 feet (320 m)

Descent: 1,050 feet (320 m)

Our longer circular route begins in the mining village of Rio Tinto and passes through extensive orange groves. The varied trail follows riverbanks and forest paths, with sections along quiet lanes and among the orange trees.

Day 4 Almonaster la Real

Today's destination is Almonaster la Real, an attractive hill town in the heart of the Sierra de Aracena y Picos de Aroche Natural Park. Its historic centre is crowned by a 9th-century castle-fortress and the church-mosque of Nuestra Señora de la Concepción.

The surrounding landscape is equally rewarding, with grazing pastures, chestnut groves and woodlands filled with cork and holm oak.

Option 1: Calabazares to Almonaster la Real

Distance: 3.5 miles (6 km)

Ascent: 750 feet (240 m)

Descent: 350 feet (100 m)

Starting in Calabazares, we head west through the peaceful countryside towards Almonaster la Real. The route finishes beneath the town's historic hilltop castle and church-mosque.

Option 2: The Countryside Around Almonaster la Real

Distance: 8 miles (13 km)

Ascent: 1,250 feet (380 m)

Descent: 1,250 feet (380 m)

Our longer circular walk explores the pastures and woodland surrounding Almonaster la Real. Along the way, we pass cork and holm oaks, chestnut groves and areas filled with poplar, willow, myrtle and rockrose.

Day 5 Free Day

Today is free for you to relax at the hotel or explore Aracena at your own pace.

You may like to visit the Gruta de las Maravillas, an impressive cave system filled with underground lakes and dramatic rock formations (open daily, although special schedules may apply on certain holidays. Entrance fee applies). Alternatively, walk up to Aracena Castle (entrance fee applies) for panoramic views over the surrounding hills or stroll through the town's whitewashed streets and traditional squares.

You could also visit the Ham Museum (entrance fee applies) to learn more about the area's cured-meat heritage or sample local specialities such as Ibérico ham and chestnut-based dishes. For a more restful day, make the most of the hotel's terraces, pool or spa facilities. Additional charges may apply.

Day 6 The Hills of Aracena

Dense woodland covers much of the Sierra de Aracena, nourished by a humid climate influenced by the Atlantic. Oak and chestnut trees line the trails, while the surrounding pastures are home to grazing cattle and native black Ibérico pigs.

Both options explore the countryside between Aracena and Corteconcepción, passing through a landscape shaped by traditional farming and the region's celebrated food heritage.

Option 1: Corteconcepción to Aracena

Distance: 3.7 miles (6 km)

Ascent: 350 feet (107 m)

Descent: 350 feet (107 m)

Starting in Corteconcepción, we follow shaded paths through the wooded hills towards Aracena. This shorter route offers an easy-going way to enjoy the oak and chestnut forests characteristic of the natural park.

Option 2: Aracena and Corteconcepción

Distance: 7.5 miles (12 km)

Ascent: 805 feet (246 m)

Descent: 805 feet (246 m)

Our longer circular walk heads north from Aracena through peaceful woodland and traditional pastureland. After passing through Corteconcepción, we return to Aracena by a different route through the surrounding hills.

Day 7 Alájar and Fuenteheridos

Today we journey west to explore the villages and fertile countryside around Alájar and Fuenteheridos. Natural springs have long supported the area's orchards and market gardens, creating a green landscape of small fields, woodland and traditional villages.

Option 1: The Market Gardens of Fuenteheridos

Distance: 4.3 miles (7 km)

Ascent: 820 feet (250 m)

Descent: 820 feet (250 m)

Our shorter walk leads towards Fuenteheridos through a fertile landscape shaped by the area's plentiful springs. We pass orchards before arriving in this attractive whitewashed village.

Option 2: Alájar to Los Marines

Distance: 7.5 miles (12 km)

Ascent: 985 feet (300 m)

Descent: 985 feet (300 m)

Starting in Alájar, our longer route passes the viewpoint at Peña de Arias Montano, overlooking the surrounding hills and villages. We then continue through the wooded countryside before finishing in Los Marines.

Vaccinations & health

Vaccinations & health information

Before booking, you should check with your doctor to see whether any health precautions are needed for your trip. Health advice and requirements can change, so we recommend doing this in good time before travel.

As a general rule, travellers should ensure they are up to date with routine UK vaccinations and boosters, including, for example, MMR and diphtheria, tetanus and polio. Some countries may require you to have specific vaccinations such as Malaria, Rabies and Yellow Fever. Please check with your GP if you are unsure.

Please note that the use or possession of some common prescription or over-the-counter medicines is restricted or banned in certain countries. If you will be carrying medication, you should check with the relevant embassy or consulate before travelling. As an extra precaution, we recommend keeping medication in its original packaging, carrying a copy of your prescription, and, where possible, asking your pharmacist to provide the medication name in the language of the country you are visiting.

For further country-specific health advice, visit www.fitfortravel.nhs.uk or www.traveldoctor.co.uk. If you are travelling from outside the UK, please consult your own doctor and check local entry requirements.

If you hold a different type of British passport or a passport issued by another country, you must check the requirements with the relevant embassy, consulate, or official government website.

Visa Requirements

Visa rules depend on your nationality, destination, length of stay, and purpose of travel, and they can change frequently. It is your responsibility to check whether you require a visa before travelling.
