

HF Holidays News Release – 1 April 2021

HF Holidays 2022 European Collection available and ready to BOOK NOW!

Fantastic Early Booking Offers including Winter Sun escapes from £799pp (with flights). Book by May 2021 and save up to £200pp on selected European destinations and departure dates.

Leading walking holidays tour operator HF Holidays has launched their exciting range of European 2022 holidays sooner than ever in preparation for the increasing demand of overseas travel for late 2021 and 2022. There are several new trips added to the already extensive collection, including the spectacular Gotaleden Trail in Sweden - showcasing sustainable travel at its best, and a stunning Best of Causeway coastal trail offering guests a geological experience of wildlife and wilderness; both of which have departures starting from September 2021. Additional new destinations include Norway, Turkey, Iceland and Slovakia all of which will be coming soon and will be available to book by early summer 2021.

Early availability of the HF Holidays 2022 European collection gives customers the opportunity to plan their next trip and secure their 2022 holiday sooner rather than later, with great offers and departures available to book now for September 2021 right through to autumn 2022. Winter sun options include the Canary Islands, Madeira, Portugal's Western Algarve, Malta and Cyprus with prices starting from £799pp* including flights; exceptional value with a fully bonded tour operator such as HF Holidays.

All holidays offer an authentic travel experience, suitable for active travellers who like to meet new people and really get under the skin of the destinations they are visiting and feature extraordinary walks and unusual places of interest.

Naturally, guests may have some concerns about booking a holiday far into the future; however, HF Holidays provides peace of mind with their fair and flexible booking conditions, enabling customers to Book in Confidence.
