HF Holidays pledges support to emergency services

Leading walking and outdoor holiday specialist, HF Holidays based in Elstree, Hertfordshire pledges to support a range of emergency services across the UK.

For over ten years, HF Holidays has made an annual donation to emergency services local to each of their 18 UK country houses. The money helps 33 rescue and emergency teams including mountain rescue, search and rescue and air ambulance services.

Jim Forward, Chief Executive at HF Holidays, said: "Our guests' safety is of paramount importance and the specialist rescue services gives us and our guests' peace of mind that in the unlikely event of an emergency, help is on hand."

With HF Holidays, the number one Which? recommended holiday provider for 2017, visitors can enjoy great walking in a huge variety of locations over six continents, covering coasts, lakeshores, moorland and mountains.
